IMMEDIATE ACTION REQUIRED:

You must take steps after your recent election E2022/106

Dear Joanne Janes,

An election has recently been completed by the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) for the Australian Federation of Air Pilots.

This letter explains the next steps you must take and what information you need to lodge with the Registered Organisations Commission (ROC).

What you must do right now

- Let your members know about the election report issued by the AEC
- Arrange financial training for officers newly elected to an office with financial management duties. (This includes all members of the committee of management).
- Complete the notification of change and email it to regorgs@roc.gov.au

This letter explains these steps and the tools available to help you.

STEP 1: Notify members

You must put a notice on your website once you receive your post-election report. It must tell your members they can request a copy of the post-election report from you or the AEC (r. 141). The notice must be on your website for at least 3 months.

Can I put more information on our website?

Yes! Being transparent is part of good governance. You can publish the whole report or the declaration of results, as well as your notice and leave them up longer than 3 months. You can always do more than the regulatory minimum.

The ROC will also publish your declaration of results on our website.

STEP 2: Financial training

You may have to arrange financial training for people elected to new roles.

All officers with financial management duties must complete financial training (s 293K). For information on when officers must redo training and hints on when to book training for officers taking up multiple offices please see our fact sheet.

There are face to face and online financial training packages on the ROC website.

You must act on this now, as affected officers MUST complete approved financial training OR been granted an exemption by the ROC within 6 months of beginning to hold office.

Good governance tip:

Organisations should instruct officer holders about their other obligations. This is especially important for committee of management members.

Our podcast covers the benefits of officer induction. Officers have responsibilities under the rules, the RO Act, and disclosure requirements around conflicts of interest, remuneration and material personal interests. Officers will benefit from our officer induction kit and our podcast, such as episode 17 - conflicts of interest.

STEP 3: Notifications of change

A notification of change must be lodged with the ROC within 35 days of the change occurring.

We have a template to help you with this, which you can send to regorgs@roc.gov.au. An officer must sign the completed notification template.

You must lodge a notification of change if:

- any of your officers have not been re-elected;
- officers have changed offices; or
- you have new officers.

Only notify us of changes that have already occurred. If people take up office in the future, you must wait until the change happens before lodging the notification within 35 days of the change.

Note: One election may result in many notifications of change.

Penalties apply

Failing to lodge your notifications of change on time can expose your organisation and its officers to significant penalties.

ROC v CEPU

The organisation failed to make a series of notifications of change on time.

The Full Court said 'The record-keeping obligations imposed under the Registered Organisations Act are treated by the legislature as important and serious, and contravention of those obligations are correspondingly serious.'

The organisation was ordered to pay a penalty. More information is available in our case summary.

Questions?

Why do I need to tell you the results of the election when you've already received them?

The RO Act requires that you tell us this information about your officers – it is a legal obligation. The notification of change also contains information that is not in the declaration of results.

What if the officer has already done training?

Check out our fact sheet for when officers need to redo training, when they can get an exemption and when further training isn't required.

If you have any queries we can be contacted on 1300 341 665 or by email at regorgs@roc.gov.au.

Yours sincerely

Registered Organisations Commission

The ROC has a Compliance Policy which explains how we respond to issues of non-compliance. The policy is available on our website if you would like further information on the steps the compliance team may take in response to non-lodgement of a financial report.

[2] I note that the most recent previous elections for these offices (E2020/108) were only declared in the period June 2021 to January 2022.¹ I further note that rule 25 of the organisation's rules 'Transitional Rule – 2020 Elections' truncates the term of the office currently being served. Sub-rule 20(b) provides that:

- (b) This Rule is intended to facilitate the synchronisation of elections for offices in the Federation arising from the delay in the conduct of elections by the Australian Electoral Commission due in 2020 as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic

[3] In relation to the specific offices for which prescribed information was lodged in this current matter (E2022/106), sub-rules 25(d) and 25(e) provide that:

- (d) The terms of office of the Council Committee Members declared elected to office by the Australian Electoral Commission on 2 June 2021 and 18 August 2021 (E2020/108 – Stage 1) shall be truncated so that elections for the offices of Council Committee Members shall be conducted at the same time as the 2022 Federal Election.
- (e) The terms of office of Council Office Bearers declared elected to office by the Australian Electoral Commission on 25 November 2021 and 27 January 2022 (E2020/108 – Stage 2) shall be truncated so that elections for Council Office Bearers shall be conducted in 2022 as soon as possible after the Council Committee Members are declared in 2022.

¹ Having been elected later than usual due to COVID-related delays

[4] I also note that on the same date as the organisation lodged prescribed information requesting this current election, for the Councils of the organisation, it also lodged prescribed information for an election for senior offices of the organisation (matter E2022/63). I take this opportunity to indicate to the organisation that, if the operation of its rules is such that prescribed information must be lodged for multiple sets of offices (including for multi-stage election processes), it is open to the organisation to lodge a single set of prescribed information.

[5] I am satisfied that an election for the abovenamed offices is required to be held under the rules of the organisation and, under subsection 189(3) of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009, I am making arrangements for the conduct of the election by the Australian Electoral Commission.

DELEGATE OF THE COMMISSIONER
