Dear Mark Diamond

IMMEDIATE ACTION REQUIRED:

You must take steps after your recent election E2022/65

An election has recently been completed by the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) for the Australian Rail, Tram and Bus Industry Union.

This letter explains the next steps you must take and what information you need to lodge with the Fair Work Commission (the Commission).

What you must do right now

- Let your members know about the election report issued by the AEC
- Arrange financial training for officers newly elected to an office with financial management duties. (This includes all members of the committee of management).
- Complete the notification of change and email it to regorgs@fwc.gov.au

This letter explains these steps and the tools available to help you.

STEP 1: Notify members

You must put a notice on your website once you receive your post-election report. It must tell your members they can request a copy of the post-election report from you or the AEC (regulation 141). The notice must be on your website for at least three months.

Can I put more information on our website?

Yes! Being transparent is part of good governance. You can publish the whole report or the declaration of results, as well as your notice and leave them up longer than three months. You can always do more than the regulatory minimum.

The Commission will also publish your declaration of results on our website.

STEP 2: Financial training

You may have to arrange financial training for people elected to new roles.

All officers with financial management duties must complete financial training (section 293K). For information on when officers must redo training and hints on when to book training for officers taking up multiple offices please see our fact sheet.

There are face to face and online financial training packages on the Commission website.

You must act on this now, as affected officers MUST complete approved financial training OR been granted an exemption by the Commission within six months of beginning to hold office.

Good governance tip:

Organisations should instruct officer holders about their other obligations. This is especially important for committee of management members.

Our podcast covers the benefits of officer induction. Officers have responsibilities under the rules, the RO Act, and disclosure requirements around conflicts of interest, remuneration and material personal interests. Officers will benefit from our officer induction kit and our podcast, such as episode 17 - conflicts of interest.

STEP 3: Notifications of change

A notification of change must be lodged with the Commission within 35 days of the change occurring.

We have a template to help you with this, which you can send to regorgs@fwc.gov.au. An officer must sign the completed notification template.

You must lodge a notification of change if:

- any of your officers have not been re-elected;
- officers have changed offices; or
- you have new officers.

Only notify us of changes that have already occurred. If people take up office in the future, you must wait until the change happens before lodging the notification within 35 days of the change.

Note: One election may result in many notifications of change.

Penalties apply

Failing to lodge your notifications of change on time can expose your organisation and its officers to significant penalties.

ROC v CEPU

The organisation failed to make a series of notifications of change on time.

The Full Court said ‘The record-keeping obligations imposed under the Registered Organisations Act are treated by the legislature as important and serious, and contravention of those obligations are correspondingly serious.’

The organisation was ordered to pay a penalty. More information is available in our case summary.

Why do I need to tell you the results of the election when you’ve already received them?

The RO Act requires that you tell us this information about your officers – it is a legal obligation. The notification of change also contains information that is not in the declaration of results.

What if the officer has already done training?

Check out our fact sheet for when officers need to redo training, when they can get an exemption and when further training isn’t required.

If you have any queries we can be contacted on 1300 341 665 or by email at regorgs@fwc.gov.au.

All officers with financial management duties must complete financial training (section 293K). For information on when officers must redo training and hints on when to book training for officers taking up multiple offices please see our fact sheet.

There are face to face and online financial training packages on the Commission website.

You must act on this now, as affected officers MUST complete approved financial training OR been granted an exemption by the Commission within six months of beginning to hold office.

Good governance tip:

Organisations should instruct officer holders about their other obligations. This is especially important for committee of management members.

Our podcast covers the benefits of officer induction. Officers have responsibilities under the rules, the RO Act, and disclosure requirements around conflicts of interest, remuneration and material personal interests. Officers will benefit from our officer induction kit and our podcast, such as episode 17 - conflicts of interest.

What if the officer has already done training?

Check out our fact sheet for when officers need to redo training, when they can get an exemption and when further training isn't required.

If you have any queries we can be contacted on 1300 341 665 or by email at regorgs@fwc.gov.au.

Yours sincerely

Fair Work Commission

The Commission has a Compliance Policy which explains how we respond to issues of non-compliance. The policy is available on our website if you would like further information on the steps the compliance team may take in response to non-lodgement of a financial report.

Registered Organisations Commission

17 January 2023

Mark Diamond
National Secretary
Australian Rail, Tram and Bus Industry Union
Sent via email: rtbu@rtbu.org.au

IMMEDIATE ACTION REQUIRED:

You must take steps after your recent election E2022/65

Dear Mark Diamond,

An election has recently been completed by the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) for the Australian Rail, Tram and Bus Industry Union.

This letter explains the next steps you must take and what information you need to lodge with the Registered Organisations Commission (ROC).

What you must do right now

- Let your members know about the election report issued by the AEC
- Arrange financial training for officers newly elected to an office with financial management duties. (This includes all members of the committee of management).
- Complete the notification of change and email it to regorgs@roc.gov.au

This letter explains these steps and the tools available to help you.

STEP 1: Notify members

You must put a notice on your website once you receive your post-election report. It must tell your members they can request a copy of the post-election report from you or the AEC (r. 141). The notice must be on your website for at least 3 months.

Can I put more information on our website?

Yes! Being transparent is part of good governance. You can publish the whole report or the declaration of results, as well as your notice and leave them up longer than 3 months. You can always do more than the regulatory minimum.

The ROC will also publish your declaration of results on our website.

STEP 2: Financial training

You may have to arrange financial training for people elected to new roles.

All officers with financial management duties must complete financial training (s 293K). For information on when officers must redo training and hints on when to book training for officers taking up multiple offices please see our fact sheet.

There are face to face and online financial training packages on the ROC website.

You must act on this now, as affected officers MUST complete approved financial training OR been granted an exemption by the ROC within 6 months of beginning to hold office.

Good governance tip:

Organisations should instruct officer holders about their other obligations. This is especially important for committee of management members.

Our podcast covers the benefits of officer induction. Officers have responsibilities under the rules, the RO Act, and disclosure requirements around conflicts of interest, remuneration and material personal interests. Officers will benefit from our officer induction kit and our podcast, such as episode 17 - conflicts of interest.

STEP 3: Notifications of change

A notification of change must be lodged with the ROC within 35 days of the change occurring.

We have a template to help you with this, which you can send to regorgs@roc.gov.au. An officer must sign the completed notification template.

You must lodge a notification of change if:

- any of your officers have not been re-elected;
- officers have changed offices; or
- you have new officers.

Only notify us of changes that have already occurred. If people take up office in the future, you must wait until the change happens before lodging the notification within 35 days of the change.

Note: One election may result in many notifications of change.

Penalties apply

Failing to lodge your notifications of change on time can expose your organisation and its officers to significant penalties.

ROC v CEPU

The organisation failed to make a series of notifications of change on time.

The Full Court said 'The record-keeping obligations imposed under the Registered Organisations Act are treated by the legislature as important and serious, and contravention of those obligations are correspondingly serious.'

The organisation was ordered to pay a penalty. More information is available in our case summary.

Questions?

Why do I need to tell you the results of the election when you've already received them?

The RO Act requires that you tell us this information about your officers – it is a legal obligation. The notification of change also contains information that is not in the declaration of results.

What if the officer has already done training?

Check out our fact sheet for when officers need to redo training, when they can get an exemption and when further training isn't required.

If you have any queries we can be contacted on 1300 341 665 or by email at regorgs@roc.gov.au.

Yours sincerely

Registered Organisations Commission

The ROC has a Compliance Policy which explains how we respond to issues of non-compliance. The policy is available on our website if you would like further information on the steps the compliance team may take in response to non-lodgement of a financial report.

Mark Diamond
National Secretary
Australian Rail, Tram and Bus Industry Union
Sent via email: rtbu@rtbu.org.au

IMMEDIATE ACTION REQUIRED:

You must take steps after your recent election E2022/65

Dear Mark Diamond,

An election has recently been completed by the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) for the Australian Rail, Tram and Bus Industry Union.

This letter explains the next steps you must take and what information you need to lodge with the Registered Organisations Commission (ROC).

What you must do right now

- Let your members know about the election report issued by the AEC
- Arrange financial training for officers newly elected to an office with financial management duties. (This includes all members of the committee of management).
- Complete the notification of change and email it to regorgs@roc.gov.au

This letter explains these steps and the tools available to help you.

STEP 1: Notify members

You must put a notice on your website once you receive your post-election report. It must tell your members they can request a copy of the post-election report from you or the AEC (r. 141). The notice must be on your website for at least 3 months.

Can I put more information on our website?

Yes! Being transparent is part of good governance. You can publish the whole report or the declaration of results, as well as your notice and leave them up longer than 3 months. You can always do more than the regulatory minimum.

The ROC will also publish your declaration of results on our website.

STEP 2: Financial training

You may have to arrange financial training for people elected to new roles.

All officers with financial management duties must complete financial training (s 293K). For information on when officers must redo training and hints on when to book training for officers taking up multiple offices please see our fact sheet.

There are face to face and online financial training packages on the ROC website.

You must act on this now, as affected officers MUST complete approved financial training OR been granted an exemption by the ROC within 6 months of beginning to hold office.

Good governance tip:

Organisations should instruct officer holders about their other obligations. This is especially important for committee of management members.

Our podcast covers the benefits of officer induction. Officers have responsibilities under the rules, the RO Act, and disclosure requirements around conflicts of interest, remuneration and material personal interests. Officers will benefit from our officer induction kit and our podcast, such as episode 17 - conflicts of interest.

STEP 3: Notifications of change

A notification of change must be lodged with the ROC within 35 days of the change occurring.

We have a template to help you with this, which you can send to regorgs@roc.gov.au. An officer must sign the completed notification template.

You must lodge a notification of change if:

- any of your officers have not been re-elected;
- officers have changed offices; or
- you have new officers.

Only notify us of changes that have already occurred. If people take up office in the future, you must wait until the change happens before lodging the notification within 35 days of the change.

Note: One election may result in many notifications of change.

Penalties apply

Failing to lodge your notifications of change on time can expose your organisation and its officers to significant penalties.

ROC v CEPU

The organisation failed to make a series of notifications of change on time.

The Full Court said 'The record-keeping obligations imposed under the Registered Organisations Act are treated by the legislature as important and serious, and contravention of those obligations are correspondingly serious.'

The organisation was ordered to pay a penalty. More information is available in our case summary.

Questions?

Why do I need to tell you the results of the election when you've already received them?

The RO Act requires that you tell us this information about your officers – it is a legal obligation. The notification of change also contains information that is not in the declaration of results.

What if the officer has already done training?

Check out our fact sheet for when officers need to redo training, when they can get an exemption and when further training isn't required.

If you have any queries we can be contacted on 1300 341 665 or by email at regorgs@roc.gov.au.

Yours sincerely

Registered Organisations Commission

The ROC has a Compliance Policy which explains how we respond to issues of non-compliance. The policy is available on our website if you would like further information on the steps the compliance team may take in response to non-lodgement of a financial report.

AMENDING DECISION

Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009
s.189—Arrangement for conduct of an election

Australian Rail, Tram and Bus Industry Union
(E2022/65)

MR STEENSON

SYDNEY, 7 JUNE 2022

Arrangement for conduct of election.

[1] On 1 June 2022, as Delegate of the Registered Organisations Commissioner, I issued a decision in this matter (E2022/65) to arrange for an election for offices (listed at Attachment A) and non-office positions (listed at Attachment B) of the Australian Rail, Tram and Bus Industry Union (the organisation).

[2] On 6 June 2022, the organisation’s National Secretary wrote to the Registered Organisations Commission seeking amendments to the 1 June 2022 decision.

[3] One of the requested amendments is in relation to the list of Sub-Divisional Representatives (Depot Organisers). It appears that that particular amendment is required because the prescribed information lodged by the organisation did not list all locations within each Group. The number to be elected from these locations can then be ascertained after the end of this quarter (i.e. 30 June).

[4] The 1 June 2022 decision in this matter (E2022/65) is therefore amended as follows:

Under the heading ‘Tram and Bus Division’ on page 5 of the decision, insert the words “Tram and Bus Division Delegates to Branch Council”

Above the offices ‘Affirmative Action (Tram and Bus Division)’ and ‘Affirmative Action (Rail Divisions)’ on page 5, insert the heading ‘Affirmative Action Delegate(s) to Branch Council’

By deleting the words ‘Sub-Divisional Representatives (Depot Organisers) from the following Groups: (numbers to be determined in accordance with rule 100(4))’ from page 6 of the decision (i.e. part of Attachment A), which will instead be inserted in Attachment B (as set out below), as these are non-office positions.

By deleting the ‘Groups’ named on page 6 of the decision (the first being ‘North Coast Group’ and the last being the second reference to ‘Sydney Trains/ETR Group 3’ in that list)

By inserting in Attachment B, under the heading 'New South Wales Branch', the following words (in addition to the other non-office positions already listed):

Sub-Divisional Representatives (Depot Organisers) from the following Groups: (numbers to be determined in accordance with rule 100(4))

[5] The 1 June 2022 decision in this matter (E2022/65) is also corrected as follows:

Where reference to the ‘Western Australian Branch’ appears, this is corrected to ‘Western Australia Branch’.

[2022] ROCD 71

DECISION

Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009
s.189—Arrangement for conduct of an election

Australian Rail, Tram and Bus Industry Union (E2022/65)

MR STEENSON

SYDNEY, 1 JUNE 2022

Arrangement for conduct of election.

[1] On 28 April the Australian Rail, Tram and Bus Industry Union (the Organisation), lodged with the Registered Organisations Commission prescribed information under section 189 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (RO Act), and on 18 May 2022 lodged amended prescribed information, for an election to fill the offices listed in Attachment A of this decision for a new term of office.

[2] On 18 May 2022 the organisation also lodged prescribed information under section 187 of for an election to fill the non-office positions listed in Attachment B of this decision.

[3] I note that, following the Fair Work Commission's rule alteration decision on 3 March 2022, [2022] FWCG 4,¹ this election includes the offices of a new (single) branch in Western Australia, which commences on 1 January 2023, a merger in place of the existing two branches – the West Australian Branch and the West Australian PTA Branch. The organisation will need to take this into consideration when providing rolls of voters to the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC).

[4] I also note that several of the offices for which an election is sought are subject to formulas in the organisation's rules for calculating the particular numbers of officers to be elected. Those rules, which are listed in paragraph 7 of the prescribed information, provide the number of officers to be elected is derived from a formula that uses the number of members 'at the end of the quarter immediately preceding the date for the opening of nominations'. As the organisation's rules and the prescribed information also indicate that the date on which nominations open is 4 July,² the end of the 'quarter immediately preceding ...' is therefore 30 June.

[5] In these circumstances, the date for determining the number of officers to be elected does not occur until well after the prescribed date in the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Regulations 2009 (the Regulations) for lodging prescribed information with the Commission. The prescribed date is two months before nominations open.³ Indeed, the cut-off date for determining the numbers does not occur until a future date after the issue of an election decision by the Commission.

³ Sub-regulation 138(3) of the Regulations

[6] The operation of these provisions in the organisation's rules has meant, in practice, that this current election decision (E2022/65) has to be issued without listing the number of each office to be elected for many of those offices, and instead using the formulation 'number to be determined in accordance with the rules'. While the numbers to be elected will ultimately be included in the call for nominations issued by the AEC, the rules as they currently stand necessitate further work by the AEC, in the short space of time between the end of the quarter and the call for nominations, in order for this to occur.

[7] As part of the Commission's function of providing advice and assistance to registered organisations, I propose to separately engage with the organisation to discuss means by which the above issue may be able to be addressed before the next scheduled election is due.

[8] I am satisfied that an election for the offices and non-office positions set out in Attachment A and Attachment B respectively is required to be held under the rules of the organisation and, under subsection 189(3) of the RO Act, I am making arrangements for the conduct of the election by the AEC.
