Your advanced review

Your ORP statement had an advanced review which is a comprehensive review by the Fair Work Commission (the Commission) that evaluates compliance with the requirements of the RO Act. Your ORP statement has been uploaded to the Commission website. You do not need to do anything further this year, however the following comments are made to assist you when you prepare next year's ORP statement.

Insufficient Nil Statements

Your ORP statement was left blank and did not contain 'NIL' statements and this made it unclear whether you had fully completed the statement.

It is the view of the Commission that 'NIL' statements provide greater clarity and transparency for members. Such statements reassure the organisation's members and the Commission that the organisation or branch has turned its attention to officers' relevant remuneration, their non-cash benefits and payments to related parties.

Hint: Your reminder letter had examples of how to do a NIL statement, you can also refer to our ORP statement template which contains help about NIL statements.

Please ensure that next year's ORP statement contains NIL statements instead of blanks.

In addition, your ORP statement did not use the latest ORP statement template, as it still referred to the Registered Organisations Commission instead of the Fair Work Commission. The latest template can be found on our disclosure obligations page. Please ensure you use the latest template for next year's ORP statement.

This and other materials are regularly updated. We recommend you subscribe to the Commission's subscription service.

The Commission's risk-based approach

Over a five year period the ORP statement of every organisation and branch will be subject to at least one advanced review. An advanced review is a comprehensive review. The Commission's advanced review checklist is published on our website.

This year your ORP statement was assessed against an advanced review.

Payments to related parties and declared persons or bodies

During the financial year, the organisation did not make any payments to related parties or declared persons or bodies.

During the financial year, the following payments were made to related parties or declared persons or bodies. The details of these payments are included below. (This list does not include payments that are exempted from disclosure under section 293G).

I declare that:

- the officers listed in this ORP statement are those whose relevant remuneration places them in the top five rankings of officers;
- where fewer officers are listed, this is because only those listed officers received relevant remuneration;
- the only officers in the top five rankings who received non-cash benefits are those for whom an amount is listed in the non-cash benefits column;
- the persons and entities listed under 'payments to related parties' are the only related parties or declared persons or bodies that are required to be disclosed under s.293G, where none are listed this is because there were no disclosable payments;

Signed (by the officer making the declaration):

Stuart Fysh

Dated: 29/03/2023

PLEASE NOTE: The Officer and Related Party Disclosure Statement must be provided to all members and a copy lodged with the Registered Organisations Commission (ROC) within six months of the end of the financial year. It can be lodged with the ROC by emailing to regorgs@roc.gov.au. ALL BRANCHES are required to lodge an Officer and Related Party Disclosure Statement. It is then published on the ROC website.

Did you know?

Relevant remuneration is more than just the remuneration paid to the officer by the organisation

It includes remuneration paid to the officer:

- by boards (such as a superannuation board) in certain circumstances; and
- by a related party of the organisation/branch in connection with the performance of the officer's duties as an officer.

The definition of related party in section 9B has some big differences from the definition in the accounting standards which applies to financial reporting

- it includes an entity controlled by an organisation, other than a branch, sub-branch, division or subdivision of the organisation or a state/territory-registered association of employees or employers of which the organisation is the federal counterpart
- it includes entities that were a related party at any time within the previous six months
- it also includes entities that believe, or have reasonable grounds to believe, that it is likely to become a related party of the organisation at any time in the future

Some related party payments are exempt from disclosure.

Declared persons or body do not have exemptions

All payments must be disclosed that have been made to declared persons or bodies.

A declared person or body is:

- a person or body that an officer with financial management duties has disclosed a material personal interest in, and;
- the officer has not notified the organisation or branch that the officer no longer has the interest.
