Dear Ian Leavers

IMMEDIATE ACTION REQUIRED:

You must take steps after your recent election E2024/53

An election has recently been completed by the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) for the Police Federation of Australia - Queensland Police Branch and a post-election report has been issued by the AEC.

This letter explains the next steps you must take, including what information you need to give to members and what information you need to lodge with the Fair Work Commission (the Commission).

What you must do right now

- Let your members know about the election report issued by the AEC
- Arrange financial training for officers newly elected to an office with financial management duties. (This includes all members of the committee of management).
- Complete the notification of change and email it to the Commission at regorgs@fwc.gov.au
- Respond to the AEC

This letter explains these steps and the tools available to help you.

STEP 1: Notify members

You must put a notice on your website once you receive your post-election report. It must tell your members they can request a copy of the post-election report from you or the AEC (regulation 141). The notice must be on your website for at least three months.

Can we put more information on our website?

Yes! Being transparent is part of good governance. You can publish the whole report or the declaration of results, as well as your notice and leave them up longer than three months. You can always do more than the regulatory minimum.

The Commission will also publish your declaration of results on our website.

STEP 2: Financial training

You may have to arrange financial training for people elected to new roles.

All officers with financial management duties must complete approved financial training (section 293K). For information on when officers must redo training and hints on when to book training for officers taking up multiple offices please see our fact sheet.

There are face-to-face and online financial training packages on the Commission website.

You must act on this now, as affected officers MUST complete approved financial training OR receive an exemption by the Commission within six months of beginning to hold office.

Good governance tip:

Organisations should instruct officer holders about their other obligations. This is especially important for committee of management members.

Our podcast covers the benefits of officer induction. Officers have responsibilities under the rules, the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the RO Act), and disclosure requirements around conflicts of interest, remuneration and material personal interests. Officers will benefit from our officer induction kit and our podcast, such as episode 17 - conflicts of interest.

STEP 3: Notifications of change

A notification of change must be lodged with the Commission within 35 days of the change occurring.

We have a template to help you with this, which you can send to regorgs@fwc.gov.au. An officer must sign the completed notification template.

You must lodge a notification of change if:

- any of your officers have not been re-elected;
- officers have changed offices; or
- you have new officers.

Only notify us of changes that have already occurred. If people take up office in the future, you must wait until the change happens before lodging the notification within 35 days of the change.

Note: One election may result in many notifications of change.

Penalties apply

Failing to lodge your notifications of change on time can expose your organisation and its officers to significant penalties.

Real-life example of penalties in Court An organisation failed to make a series of notifications of change on time.

The Full Court said ‘The record-keeping obligations imposed under the Registered Organisations Act are treated by the legislature as important and serious, and contravention of those obligations are correspondingly serious.’

The organisation was ordered to pay a penalty. More information is available in our case summary.

STEP 4: Reply to the AEC

The AEC’s post-election report says the AEC had trouble applying some of your election rules. You MUST respond to the AEC about the issues in the report (section 198).

Your response to the AEC must be in writing. It must include:

- whether the organisation intends to take action
- (if yes) what action the organisation intends to take

You must send your response to the AEC within 30 days of receiving the report and provide a copy to the Commission (section 198).

Penalties apply

The requirement to respond to the AEC comes from section 198 of the RO Act. Section 198 of the RO Act is a civil penalty provision.

A failure to take any of these steps, or taking them in the wrong order, can expose your organisation to penalties under the RO Act.

Make the report and your response available to your members

You must make the post-election report about difficult rules available to your members.

You must also make your written response to the AEC available to your members.

Timing is very important

You must make the report about difficult rules available to your members before or at the same time as you make your response available.

Your response must be available to members:

- in the next edition of your journal or
- within 30 days of giving it to the AEC (if using a method other than your journal to make it available, e.g. your website)

Penalties apply

The requirement to respond to the AEC comes from section 198 of the RO Act. Section 198 of the RO Act is a civil penalty provision.

A failure to take any of these steps, or taking them in the wrong order, can expose your organisation to penalties under the RO Act.

How do I make these documents available to my members?

The RO Act says you will have made the document available if you do all the following things:

- Publish a copy of the relevant section and your response in your next journal, AND
- Send the Commission a copy of the relevant section and your response with a declaration that you'll provide copies to any member who asks for one, AND

- Tell members in your next journal (or an appropriate newspaper) that you'll give the relevant section of the report and your response to any member free of charge if requested, AND
- Put on your website:
 - the relevant section of the report within 14 days of receiving it and
 - your response within 14 days of sending it to the AEC

But you can also make the documents available to your members in other ways as well.

What if we decide to change our rules?

You can! If you think changing your rules will fix or improve the issues raised by the AEC you can change your rules.

Your rules will include a rule altering procedure that you must follow in order to do this.

We provide help changing your rules and advice on rule requirements. Please contact us at regorgs@fwc.gov.au, or ring 1300 341 665. Alternatively you could book an online Governance to You visit with a Commission staff member to discuss the changes.

Questions?

What if I don't understand the post-election report?

You should contact the AEC immediately to discuss what the report means.

What if we decide not to take action?

You must tell the AEC in writing you do not intend to act.

What if I have already responded to the AEC?

If you have already done the things set out in step 4, please disregard this step.

Remember to make the relevant section of the report and your response available to your members as well.

Why do I need to tell you the results of the election when you've already received them?

The RO Act requires that you tell us this information about your officers – it is a legal obligation. The notification of change also contains information that is not in the declaration of results.

What if the officer has already done training?

Check out our fact sheet for when officers need to redo training, when they can get an exemption and when further training isn't required.

If you have any queries we can be contacted on 1300 341 665 or by email at regorgs@fwc.gov.au.

Yours sincerely

Fair Work Commission

The Commission has an interim Compliance Policy which explains how we respond to issues of non-compliance. The policy is available on our website if you would like further information on the steps the compliance team may take in response to non-lodgement of a financial report.
