Salary: Salary levels are reviewed by the BOM with any changes taking effect from 1 July. The applicable base salary for all full time Officials for the 2023 financial year was $223,361. Salary amounts also include annual leave (including leave loading), sick leave and long service leave taken.

Travel Allowances: This includes Domestic Travel (an $90 overnight allowance is paid) and International Travel (applicable allowances are paid in accordance with the ATO issued reasonable allowances).

Other Income: Can include items such as cash out of sick leave or annual leave entitlements or payment of overnight allowance when attending Central Council.

Termination Payments: Include payments of unused employee entitlements and any applicable redundancy payments.

Reportable Fringe Benefits: These include non cash benefits provided to Officials, where FBT is applicable. Each Full time Official is provided with a fully maintained motor vehicle. Other non cash benefits such as mobile phones and other electronic work devices are exempt benefits for FBT purposes and are considered immaterial for the purpose of this report. The Fringe Benefits Tax year runs from 1 April 2022 to 31 March 2023.

Disclosure of Boards or Committees where remuneration is paid: During the financial year ending 31 December 2023 the following Officials were on Boards and/or Committees associated with their roles with the Union and the District was paid the corresponding amounts, this includes reimbursement for travel and other expenses as well. For the avoidance of doubt no payments were made to the respective Official:

Robin Williams - CSPL Pty Ltd, Mines Rescue Pty Ltd and Coal Mines Insurance Pty Ltd.

The District also receives $28,560 from the NSW State Government as funding for the Industry Check Inspectors (Anthony Watson & Stephen Tranter) engaged by the District.

Disclosure of Material Personal Interest: All Officials (elected full time Officers, Central Councillors and other Board of Management members) of the Mining and Energy Union Northern Mining and NSW Energy District Branch have provided declarations as to their Material Personal Interests.

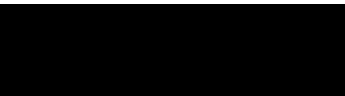

Period of Payment: All payments are for the year 1 January 2023 to 31 December 2023 unless detailed below:
