Rules difficult to apply/interpret: Rule 36(6) requires "If, at the closing of nominations, at least 5 nominations have been received for Branch Committee members, the Returning Officer may declare those persons elected without inviting further nominations for those offices." The intention of this rule is unclear where there are less than five nominations received. It's suggested that the rule be amended to clarify/ensure it reflects the requirements of the organisation.

Dear Mr Kennedy

Association of Consulting Architects – Australia
New South Wales/Australian Capital Territory Branch
Vacancy Election E2016/181

I refer to my letter of 1 September 2016.

I have accepted all nominations which were received by me and attached is my declaration of the results. The direct election is now completed. Please advise the successful candidates.

In accordance with the rules, the 2nd stage collegiate election for Branch Office-holders will be conducted by post. I propose the following timetable:

Roll of voters closes:	12 September 2016
Nominations open:	19 September 2016
Nominations close:	4 October 2016 at 12:00noon AEDT
Ballot opens:	18 October 2016
Ballot closes:	8 November 2016 at 10:00am AEDT

Can you please advise me whether the above timetable is acceptable to the Branch?

Once the timetable is confirmed, I will forward the election notice and nomination form to the Branch for information.

I intend to post and email the election notice and nomination form to the newly elected members of the Branch Committee on 19 September 2016, using their address which was supplied in their nomination form. If any of those addresses are not correct, please advise me prior to 19 September 2016.

Roll of Voters

The Roll of Voters for the above election will be those Branch Committee Members who are financial on 12 September 2016.

Based on the membership details previously provided to me to enable me to verify the nominations, I've formed the view that all of the Branch Committee Members are currently financial and will remain financial when the roll closes on 12 September 2016.

Please advise me if that conclusion is incorrect, or if at any time during the election, a Branch Committee Member resigns or becomes unfinancial.

If you have any queries or concerns regarding the above matters please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely
