Dear Sir,

Elections – APESMA - Australian Government Division

Attached please find a prescribed notice for elections for vacancies in the Australian Government Division (AGD) of the Association

The AGD was established on 2 October 2006 following the amalgamation with the Professional Officers Association, Victoria (POAV). The Rules of the Association, including those for the Transitional Committee of the AGD, provide that elections shall be held within three months for the following positions;

- Two members by and from the AGD to represent the AGD on the Association's National Assembly (Branch Rule Part 6, 4.3 and 4.4), and
- Nine ordinary members of the AGD Transitional Committee (Branch Rule Part 6, 4.2);
 - Three by and from AGD members residing in the ACT
 - Two by and from AGD members residing in:
 - Victoria
 - South Australia
 - One by and from AGD members residing in;
 - Western Australia
 - Queensland
 - New South Wales

Once elected the above office holders will remain in office until their successors are elected in 2007 in accordance with the relevant APESMA Rules. As there also is an election process already underway for other positions within the Association, it would be appreciated if it was possible for the AGD balloting process to conclude prior to the end of this year.

Please contact me if you require any further information.

Yours sincerely,
