“In the event that there are insufficient nominations in respect of any election being conducted pursuant to these rules, any persons who have nominated shall be declared elected and nominations for any remaining unfilled positions shall be recalled by the Returning Officer.”

As this rule allows for the Returning Officer to recall the unfilled positions, I am emailing you to advise that I would like you to withdraw the vacant Victorian Branch positions from the Prescribed Information which I submitted to Fair Work Australia on the 6th November 2009.
