Dear Sir

ELECTION - TASMANIAN BRANCH

In accordance with subsection 214(1) of the Workplace Relations Act 1996 (WR Act), we make application for arrangements to be made for the conduct of an election by the Australian Electoral Commission.

The name of the positions and the offices to be elected is as follows:

POSITION	NUMBER TO BE ELECTED

We understand that arrangements are underway to conduct an election only for the National Board delegate and we seek that the election of the Vice President and the National Board delegate be conducted concurrently.

The reason for the election of the Vice President is that a casual vacancy has occurred. The voting system used by the Australian Hotels Association is the collegiate system.

A written statement confirming these details is attached in accordance with section 214 of the WR Act and Subregulation 61(2) of the Workplace Relations Regulations 1996.

Yours faithfully

Paul Jubb
Tasmanian President

WRITTEN STATEMENT

I, Paul Jubb of 1 Murray Street, Hobart in the State of Tasmania, do solemnly and sincerely declare as follows:

That I am the Tasmanian President, and, as such, a member of the Committee of Management of the Australian Hotels Association Tasmanian Branch.

That the Committee of Management wishes to apply under section 214 of the Workplace Relations Act 1996 for the conduct of an election by the Australian Electoral Commission. An election is required for the following positions:

POSITION	NUMBER TO BE ELECTED

The reason for the election of the Vice President is that a casual vacancy has occurred. The voting system used by the Australian Hotels Association is a collegiate system.
