Southern Area President

Southern Area Vice President

Southern Area Secretary

Central Area President

Central Area Vice President

Central Area Secretary

Western Area President

Western Area Vice President

Western Area Secretary

Offshore Divisional Delegates x 2

Port Services Divisional Delegates x 2

(b) the reason for the election, being (i) that the term of the office has expired.

(c) in so far as the Divisional Delegates are concerned, the number of Divisional Delegates to be elected is equal to 1 Divisional Delegate for every 600 division members: see Rule 49(b)(ii). The Australian Maritime Officers Union is comprised of 2 Divisions, namely the Offshore Division and the Port Services Division: see Rule 28.

- (d) the President, Vice President and 2 Secretaries referred to in (a) above are elected by a secret ballot of all financial members of the Australian Maritime Officers Union: see Rule 49(a).

the Eastern Area President, the Eastern Area Vice President and the Eastern Area Secretary are to be elected by all the financial members of the Eastern Area: see Rule 49(c). The Eastern Area comprises the States of New South Wales and Queensland: see Rule 30(b)(ii).

the Southern Area President, the Southern Area Vice President and the Southern Area Secretary are to be elected by all the financial members of the Southern Area: see Rule 49(c). The Southern Area comprises the States of Victoria and Tasmania: see Rule 30(b)(iii).

the Central Area President, the Central Area Vice President and the Central Area Secretary are to be elected by all the financial members of the Central Area: see Rule 49(c). The Central Area comprises the State of South Australia and the Territory of the Northern Territory: see Rule 30(b)(i).

the Western Area President, the Western Area Vice President and the Western Area Secretary are to be elected by all the financial members of the Western Area: see Rule 49(c). The Western Area comprises the State of Western Australia: see Rule 30(b)(iv).

the Divisional Delegates shall be elected by all financial members of the Division concerned: see Rule 49(b)(ii).

- (e) the date and time of the commencement and expiration of the period during which nominations of candidates may be called for or made, under the Rules of the Australian Maritime Officers Union, is the first Monday in September and close at 1630 on the first Monday in October: see Rule 52(c).

The Rules do not provide for an alternative arrangement in the event the elections are not conducted on time.

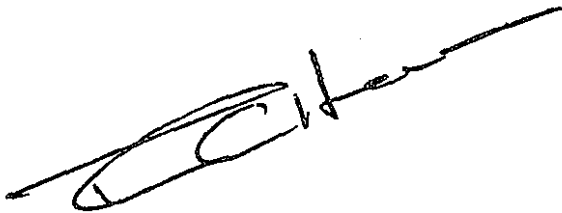

Therefore period during which nominations of candidates may be called needs to be altered and we would suggest the period for nominations should commence on or about the first Monday of the month when the Australian Electoral Commission is in a position to advertise for such nominations, with the period expiring on the first Monday of the following month.

- (f) the voting system to be employed in the conduct of the election, being (i) a direct voting system for all elected offices in (a) above.

Dear Sir

RE: REQUEST THE INDUSTRIAL REGISTRAR NOTIFY AUSTRALIAN ELECTORAL COMMISSION TO CONDUCT ELECTIONS FOR VARIOUS OFFICES OF THE AUSTRALIAN MARITIME OFFICERS UNION

The Australian Maritime Officers Union recently made application to amend it's Rules. That application was approved on 20 December 2002.

At that time we advised the Assistant to the Deputy Industrial Registrar that as soon as the Rule alterations had been approved we would be taking the necessary steps to enable elections to be held as soon as possible.

We look forward to hearing from you in due course and thank you in anticipation of your assistance.

Yours faithfully
