Post Election Report For: Australian Municipal, Administrative, Clerical and Services Union

Election E No 2007/122

I refer to the above election for your organisation.

Section 197(1) of Schedule 1 of the Workplace Relations Act 1996 requires the AEC to provide a written report on the conduct of the election to the Industrial Registrar and to the organisation or branch for whom the election was conducted. A copy of the report in relation to this election is attached.

Section 198 of Schedule 1 requires that if an organisation or branch is given a post election report under section 197 that identifies a rule that was difficult to interpret or apply, the organisation or branch must, within 30 days, give a written response to the AEC on that aspect of the report. The response must specify whether the organisation or branch intends to take any action in relation to the rule, and if so, what action it intends to take.

If the attached Report identifies a rule that was difficult to interpret or apply, you should forward your response to the AEC by email to 'industrial.elections@aec.gov.au' within thirty days of the date of the report.

Section 198 and the regulations also require an organisation to make the post election report and the organisation's response to the report (if applicable) available to members. Further, Regulation 141(4) of the Workplace Relations (RAO) Regulations requires an organisation or branch to publish a notice on its web site advising members that a copy of the post election report is available upon request. If a website is not available, publishing a notice in a journal or newsletter would be considered appropriate.

Please contact me if you wish to clarify any aspect of this report.

The Rules provide that nominations open on the Wednesday following the expiration of 28 days after the completion and declaration of all Branch elections for the offices of Branch National Executive Representatives, or the first Wednesday in July, whichever is the earlier.

The reasons for the elections are that the term of office or position has expired or is due to expire in the normal course of events.

In all cases the electorate is the National Executive. The voting system to be employed is a collegiate electoral system.

In accordance with RAO Regulation 138 (3) the prescribed day required by subsection 189 (2) of the RAO Schedule is the day occurring two months before the first day when a person may, under the Rules of the organisation or Branch, become a candidate in an election.

As I believe the Branch elections will soon be declared it may not be possible to fulfil the two month obligation. Accordingly in accordance with RAO subsection 189 (2) I request that the Registrar allow today to be the date for lodgement.

Yours faithfully
