Dear Ms Hawksworth

Re: Australian Nursing Federation - Queensland Branch
Annual Return of information contained in records kept by organisation

I have received your statutory declaration of 16 October 2002 which provides information in accordance with subsection 268(3) and Regulation 102 of the Workplace Relations Act 1996.

The documents lodged cover the following information for the 2002 Annual Return:

- certification in respect of the register of members of the branch and number of members
- certification in respect of the offices of the branch, and of the persons holding those offices
- address of the office of the branch
- information regarding the conduct of some election due to be held between 1 April 2002 and 31 March 2003

I note that the statutory declaration has been declared before your Secretary, Ms Patricia Borg. I attach a copy of persons before whom statutory declarations may be declared as it is not clear if Ms Borg falls into a category of persons who can witness declarations.

I would be pleased if you would provide a statutory declaration, either signed by an appropriate person on the list, or a statutory declaration witnessed by Ms Borg with her title (named in the list of appropriate persons).

Yours sincerely,

Margaret Williams

Dear Ms Hawksworth

Re: Australian Nursing Federation - Queensland Branch
Outstanding 2002 Annual Return of Information

In accordance with subsection 268(3) of the Workplace Relations Act 1996, each organisation is required to lodge in the Industrial Registry certain information relating to records required to be kept by the organisation under subsection 268(1) of the Act and regulation 102 of the Workplace Relations Regulations. Such information must be lodged once in each year at any time during the period of three months commencing 1 January.

From the records held in the Industrial Registry it would seem that the information appearing on Annexure A to this letter is outstanding from the organisation.

As there is a mandatory obligation on organisations to supply this information, you are requested to lodge the outstanding information under cover of a statutory declaration by 30 September 2002.

Detailed advice as to the information required to be lodged under subsections 268(3) and (4) of the Act is set out in the attachment.

Should you wish to discuss this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me on (03) 8661 7822.

In reply please quote: AR2002/180.

Yours sincerely

Margaret Williams
