Dear Mr Lewocki,

RE: AUSTRALIAN RAIL, TRAM AND BUS INDUSTRY UNION-NEW SOUTH WALES BRANCH
- ANNUAL RETURN OF INFORMATION
CONTAINED IN RECORDS KEPT BY ORGANISATION

I have received your declaration dated 7 March 2004 providing information in accordance with section 233 of Schedule 1B of the Workplace Relations Act 1996. The documents were lodged in the Industrial Registry on 19 and 23 March 2004

The documents lodged cover the following information for the year 2003:

- Number of members as at 31/12/2003.
- Declaration in respect of the register of members of the organisation.
- List of offices of the organisation and of the persons holding those offices.
- The addresses of the offices of the organisation.
- a record of each election that must, under the rules of the organisation, be held during each year commencing 1st January 2004 for an office in the organisation; and for an office in a branch of the organisation

These documents meet the requirements of Schedule 1B of the Workplace Relations Act 1996 and have now been filed.

It is understood that you have supplied the work addresses of the office holders. This information will be listed on our Organisations Website. You may wish to view your documents on www.airc.gov.au / Organisations / Electronic Organisation files. However it was noted that the text of your statutory declaration point 1 declares that you have lodged residential addresses. You are aware under recent RAO Schedule 1B of the Workplace Relations Act 1996 a statutory declaration is no longer required. A notification of a change can be certified by a declaration signed by the secretary or other prescribed officer of the organisation to be a correct statement of the changes made [s233(2)and reg. 150]. You may wish to change your declaration next year to be consistent with the new requirements.

Thank you for taking advantage of the electronic lodgment service provided by the Registry.
It offers greater convenience to you and will help us quickly finalise your matter.

Yours sincerely

Dear Mr Jowett,

RE: AUSTRALIAN RAIL, TRAM AND BUS INDUSTRY UNION
- ANNUAL RETURN OF INFORMATION
CONTAINED IN RECORDS KEPT BY ORGANISATION

I have received your declaration dated 19 April 2004 providing information in accordance with section 233 of Schedule 1B of the Workplace Relations Act 1996. The documents were lodged in the Industrial Registry on 29 April 2004.

The documents lodged cover the following information for the year 2003:

- Number of members as at 1/1/2004.
- Declaration in respect of the register of members of the organisation.
- List of offices of the organisation and of the persons holding those offices.
- The addresses of the offices of the organisation.

These documents meet the requirements of Schedule 1B of the Workplace Relations Act 1996.

The information lodged is insufficient in the following regard:

The documents lodged did not include a statement under cover of a declaration listing any offices for which elections must be held according to your organisation's rules during the year commencing 1 January 2004. You are reminded that such a statement is required under s233(b) and regulation 147(e) of Schedule 1B of the Workplace Relations Act 1996 if any elections are due during that period.

It is understood that you have supplied some personal addresses of the office holders. This information will be listed on our Organisations Website and we would seek to protect the privacy of the office holders by referring only to work or union addresses. Could you provide revised pages as part of Annexure A. You may wish to view your documents on www.airc.gov.au / Organisations / Electronic Organisation files in due course.

The NSW, South Australia and Western Australian Branches of the RTBU have provided information required for the annual return. There has been no response from other branches. Could you advise when the union will be able to complete the requirements of Schedule 1B of the Workplace Relations Act 1996.

You will be aware that the Workplace Relations Act 1996 has been amended so that The Registration and Accountability of Organisations Schedule (Schedule 1B to the Workplace Relations Act 1996) [the RAO Schedule], which generally came into operation on 12 May 2003 now contains most of the matters which relate to the registration and functioning of organisations of employers and employees under the Act. I would draw your attention to RAO Fact Sheets on the AIRC home page http://www.airc.gov.au/fact_sheets/factsheets.html

In particular - Fact Sheet No. 05/2003 7 May 2003, Australian Industrial Registry Records to be kept and lodged by organisations, identifies changes to the keeping and reporting of information. For example a statutory declaration is no longer required. A notification of a change can be certified by a declaration signed by the secretary or other prescribed officer of the organisation to be a correct statement of the changes made [s233(2) and reg. 150].

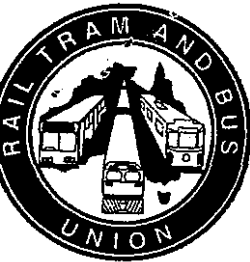

Please do not hesitate to contact me on (02) 8374 6516 if you wish to discuss the reporting requirements.

Yours sincerely
