via email: nswelection@aec.gov.au

Dear Ms Madan

This correspondence is provided in response to the AEC's post-election report dated 6 May 2019 for the Australian Rail, Tram and Bus Industry Union (RTBU) elections.

We note that the AEC has identified Rule 75 (xxiv) as a rule which is 'difficult to apply/implement'. At a recent National Executive it was determined that a review of the RTBU Rules would be commenced and that its recommendations would be provided for endorsement to National Council at its November 2019 meeting. This will include Rule 75 (xxiv).

In relation to the 'Other matters' discussed which canvas irregularities that occurred during the election process, the RTBU sought advice on these irregularities at the time from prominent law firm Holding Redlich. The advice sought included recommendations to remedy the issues which align with the actions actually taken by the AEC.

The RTBU has no other concerns or comments to raise in relation to the report or the process undertaken by the AEC.

Regards

Bob Nanva

Dear Bob Nanva

Organisation must respond to the post-election report of the Australian Electoral Commission: E2018/81

On 16/05/2019 the Registered Organisations Commission (the ROC) received a post election report from the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) for election E2018/81. The AEC will have also provided the report to the organisation under section 197 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the RO Act).

The report identifies rules that were difficult to interpret or apply, in particular Rule 75(xxiv). This letter serves as a reminder of the obligations imposed on the organisation or branch as a consequence of the AEC's report. If a response has already been sent to the AEC and made available to all members please disregard this letter.

A notice must be published on the organisation's website

The organisation or branch must publish on its website a notice that a copy of the report is available from the organisation, branch or the AEC on request. The notice must be kept on the website for a period of at least 3 months (see regs 141(4) and (5)).

A written response must be provided to the AEC

A written response must be provided to the AEC within 30 days of receipt of the report. The organisation's response must include whether the organisation or branch intends to take action and if so what action the organisation or branch intends to take (s198(2)).

Extract of report must be made available to members

The organisation or branch must make the section of the report relating to the difficult rules available to its members (s198(3)). This extract from the report must be made available to the members before or at the same time as the organisation's response is made available to members.

Written response must be made available to members

A copy of the organisation's response to the AEC must be made available to members either:

- within 30 days after the response is given to the AEC, or
- published in the next edition of the organisation or branch journal (s198(5))

Subsection 198(6) and regulation 142 prescribe ways in which the relevant extract and the copy of the response can be made available to members. These do not limit the ways in which they can be made available to members. The organisation will comply if it does all of the following:-

- publish the report extract and the copy of the response in the next edition of the organisation or branch's journal; and
- within 30 days of giving the response to the AEC:
 - lodges with the ROC a copy of the relevant extract and response, together with a declaration that a copy will be provided to any member who so requests; and
 - give notice in the next edition of the organisation or branch's journal, or an appropriate newspaper, that a copy of the relevant extract and response are available on request to each member free of charge; and
- publish the relevant extract on the website within 14 days after receiving the report, and publish the response on the website within 14 days of giving the response to the AEC (reg 142(2)).

Penalties may apply

If the organisation or branch does not:

- respond to the AEC within 30 days,
- make the extract of the report relating to the rules available to members no later than the organisation's response is made available to members, or
- make the organisation's response available to members within 30 days or in the next edition of the journal, the organisation may face penalties under the RO Act. Each requirement listed above is a civil penalty provision that may result in fines for the organisation

As noted above, if the response and report have already been made available to members and the AEC, please disregard this letter. If you have any questions in relation to these obligations please contact the ROC for assistance by email to regorgs@roc.gov.au.

If the organisation or branch decides to alter its rules in response to the AEC's report

If the organisation or branch decides to alter its rules in response to the AEC's report, the ROC is NOT able to provide advice and assistance regarding draft alterations or the processes required to make the alterations. Rule alterations remain a function of the Fair Work Commission.

Yours faithfully

Christine Hibberd
Registered Organisations Commission

AMENDING DECISION

Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009
s.189—Arrangement for conduct of an election

Australian Rail, Tram and Bus Industry Union (E2018/81)

MR ENRIGHT

MELBOURNE, 8 JUNE 2018

Arrangement for conduct of election.

[1] The Decision ([2018] ROCD 97, PR351078, issued by me, as the Delegate of the Registered Organisations Commissioner, on 4 June 2018 is amended by removing the positions set out in Attachment A1.

See Attachment A1

[2] The reasons for the amendments are as follows. In the case of the Branch Divisional Secretary for the Tram and Bus Division in the Queensland Branch, the office was separately included in the statement of prescribed information but, as subsequently identified by the Australian Electoral Commission, is by operation of sub-rule 119(2) filled ex officio by the person elected to the office of Assistant Branch Secretary (Tram and Bus Division). Consequently, it should not have been included in the Attachment to the original Decision.

[3] In the case of the Sub-Depot representatives in the Customer Service Attendants Sub-Division of the Rail Operations Division in the New South Wales Branch, the Australian Electoral Commission ('AEC') consulted the Registered Organisations Commission ('ROC') on 7 June 2018 as to the correct interpretation of that part of sub-rule 100 (12) which described the electorate and election process for "workplace representatives" within the Customer Service Attendants Sub-Division as follows:

"A workplace representative will be elected by the financial members of that Depot Sub-Division within Customer Service Attendants Sub-Division by the financial members of that Depot Sub-Division within two (2) calendar months, following the declaration of the ballot for the Customer Service Attendants Sub Division Executive positions."

There was some doubt as to whether the above paragraph described an internal election process reflecting the customary practice of the organisation where some non-office positions in small workplace locations or sub-groups were concerned and therefore not an election process conducted by the AEC. There was also some doubt as to whether, if this was the case, it referred to the ten (10) Sub-Depots set out in the list preceding the paragraph, especially given that the statement of prescribed information included one (1) representative for each of the said Sub-Depots¹ and the paragraph itself refers to "Depot Sub-Division" instead of "Sub-Depot".

[4] Following further consultation, the Assistant National Secretary of the organisation, Mr Allan Barden, advised that the process described in the above paragraph signified an internal election process conducted by the organisation at the relevant local level, and confirmed that the paragraph related to the Sub-Depots listed in the immediately preceding part of the sub-rule. This means that the ten (10) representative positions should not have been included in the Attachment to the original Decision.

[5] In the circumstances, the following comments may be apposite.

[6] There are a number of non-office positions² covered by a similar rule provision within the rules of the organisation. There are also a number of non-office positions at the Sub-Divisional level which are intended to be encompassed by the usual general request made by the organisation under section 187 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 ('RO Act') that the AEC conduct the elections as applicable, and which therefore must be included in the statement of prescribed information.

[7] A problem can arise however when information relating to any non-office positions which are not intended to be covered by the request under section 187, is included in the statement of prescribed information, as was the case in this instance. Future statements of prescribed information should not include such information and should only include information relevant to the offices and non-office positions to be elected by the AEC pursuant to subsections 187(1) and 189(1).
