Your primary review

Your ORP statement had a primary review which checked whether it was signed by an officer, lodged on time, included the required NIL statements and whether you met the requirements that the ROC raised with you last year.

Your ORP statement satisfied the requirements of the primary review and has been uploaded to the ROC website.

The ROC's risk-based approach

This year your ORP statement was assessed against a primary review. A primary review does not check all legislative requirements.

Over a five year period the ORP statement of every organisation and branch will be subject to at least one advanced review. An advanced review is a more comprehensive review.

The ROC's advanced review checklist is published on our website.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS STATEMENT:

1. Answer the question about how many officers receive remuneration (remember this includes remuneration from external boards)

Top five rankings of officers – relevant remuneration and non-cash benefits

How many officers do you have who receive remuneration?	Please circle	0	1	2	3	4	5	5+
--	----------------------	---	---	---	---	---	---	----

Remuneration includes wages and salary (including superannuation), fees, allowances, benefits and other entitlements paid by the organisation AND payments from external board positions (even if not retained by the officer).

When all officers in the Australian Rail, Tram and Bus Industry Union National are ranked by relevant remuneration for the financial year, the following officers are ranked no lower than fifth:

Full Name	Office (e.g. Secretary)	Actual amount of relevant remuneration	Value of relevant non-cash benefits	Form of relevant non-cash benefits (e.g. car)
1. Mark Diamond	National Secretary	$ 146,498.78 (base) $16,492.72 (superannuation) $27,107.99 (annual leave entitlement) *	$17,853.94	Motor Vehicle (Statutory Formula Method used to Calculate FBT Benefit)

*Auditors identified annual leave accruals needed to be brought down so cashed out annual leave in accordance with legislation.

Allan Barden is a member of a Defined Benefits Fund, parts of the closed NSW Public Sector Superannuation Scheme. The scheme is reviewed by an Actuary every three years (next review 2021). In 2020 no cash contributions were due by the RTBU

Payments to related parties and declared persons or bodies

During the financial year, the following payments were made to related parties or declared persons or bodies. The details of these payments are included below. (This list does not include payments that are exempted from disclosure under section 293G).

I declare that:

- the officers listed in this ORP statement are those whose relevant remuneration places them in the top five rankings of officers;
- where fewer officers are listed, this is because only those listed officers received relevant remuneration;
- the only officers in the top five rankings who received non-cash benefits are those for whom an amount is listed in the non-cash benefits column;
- the persons and entities listed under 'payments to related parties' are the only related parties or declared persons or bodies that are required to be disclosed under s.293G, where none are listed this is because there were no disclosable payments;
