Dear Paul

Re: Resignation from ARTIO Council Effective 4th July 2014

Due to my full time retirement from the Victorian Transport Association and industry involvement I think it is appropriate that I resign from the ARTIO Council.

I have thoroughly enjoyed my time with ARTIO extending over 28 years. During that time the ARTIO Organisation has achieved a great deal for the freight and logistics industry. Many significant issues have been addressed during this long period, including:

- Industry Superannuation
- Enterprise Bargaining
- Rationalisation of the many different Awards and pay categories
- Support and clarification of sub-contractor issues
- Hume Highway blockade
- And most recently the Road Safety Remuneration Tribunal

ARTIO has and continues to "punch above its weight" in industry issues with little industry support or knowledge. I have always appreciated your support and the support of the other Councillors. I have had a fantastic career and hope that ARTIO continues to support the industry.

Yours sincerely,

Philip N Lovel AM
