I have received your letter providing information in accordance with subsection 268(3) of the Workplace Relations Act 1996. The document was lodged in the Industrial Registry on 28 January 2003.

The document lodged covers the following information for 2003 Annual Return of the organisation:-

- * List of offices in the Branch and of the persons holding those offices.
- * Certification in respect of the register of members of the Branch.

These documents have been filed.

However, the following information is still outstanding:-

- * Address of the office of the Branch

Furthermore, the information lodged does not fully comply with the requirements of section 268 of the Act as it was not certified by the statutory declaration by you (or another officer required by the organisation or under the rules of the organisation) to be a correct statement of information contained in the corresponding records kept by the organisation.

It would be appreciated if you would arrange completion and return of the enclosed statutory declaration form covering the information previously lodged and lodge the outstanding information at your earliest convenience.

For your information I have enclosed a sample format & a statutory declaration to be submitted when lodging information in accordance with subsection 268(3).

Yours sincerely,

Leigh-Ann Mathys
