Dr Nick Buckmaster
Federal Secretary
Australian Salaried Medical Officers Federation

asmof@asmof.org.au

Dear Dr Buckmaster,

Reminder of actions required when persons elected to office

The Australian Electoral Commission has provided the Commission a declaration of results for the election [E2015/55]. This letter is a reminder of certain obligations imposed on organisations and persons elected to office.

Section 154D(1) of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the RO Act) requires the rules of organisations (and branches of organisations) to require each officer with financial management duties to undertake approved training that covers those duties within 6 months after the person begins to hold office. Please ensure that relevant officers undertake approved training within the required timeframe.

Please also ensure that all new holders of office are advised of their obligations to make disclosures regarding remuneration, non-cash benefits and material personal interests, the details of which should be provided for in your organisation's rules.

Also, section 233(2) of the RO Act requires that an organisation must notify the Fair Work Commission (the Commission) within 35 days of any changes to the holders of office in the organisation. If the election has resulted in any changes to the holders of office, the Australian Salaried Medical Officers Federation must notify the Commission of these changes. In particular, please advise:

1. Person(s) who have ceased to hold office:
  - the name of the office vacated;
  - the date of the change of office holder; and
  - the name of the person vacating the office.
2. Person(s) who have commenced to hold office:
  - the name of the office now held;
  - the date of the change of office holder;
  - the name of the person now holding the office;
  - the postal address of the person (generally the postal address of the organisation); and
  - the occupation of the person now holding the office.

The notification must include a declaration by the Secretary (or other prescribed officer) that the information is a correct statement of the changes made. I have attached a template notification of changes which may assist you. If any change does not apply until a specific date, you don't need to notify until then (e.g. AGM, 1 January, 2nd Monday in March). If you have already lodged this information, please disregard this reminder.

Regards

Debbie Ball
Regulatory Compliance Branch

POST ELECTION REPORT

ELECTION/S COVERED IN THIS REPORT

Election Decision No/s: E2015/55

RULES

Rules used for the election: [132N: Incorporates alterations of 23 January 2015 [R2014/327]]

Rules difficult to apply/interpret: 1. Rule 64 does not provide a mechanism for what to do when two or more candidates receive the same number of votes for a Branch Council position. I recommend that a rule similar to 65 (m) be included in the rules for Branch Council positions.

2. In regards to Rule 65 (m), the reference to drawing by lot in front of at least one scrutineer should be deleted. This part of the rule is defective as a scrutineer may or may not be present. This could be changed instead to a signed witness if the presence of a witness is required.

3. A number of the rules state that the closing of the ballot shall be fourteen days, for example Rule 66 1 (f) (i) – this does not provide sufficient time for the return of ballot papers for ASMOF members who are overseas.

ASMOF may also want to consider adding to the rules a provision for the appointment of a proxy to vote on an absentee's behalf at elections to offices. The rules currently do not cater for this and there were a number of issues with eligible members being overseas at the time of voting. Rule 32 and 59 should include proxy voting for elections to Office in addition to normal business

[R2014/327] (replaces 06/1/2014 version (R2013/71))

Election E No 2015/55

I refer to the above election for your organisation.

Section 197(1) of Schedule 1 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 requires the AEC to provide a written report on the conduct of the election to the Industrial Registrar and to the organisation or branch for whom the election was conducted. A copy of the report in relation to this election is attached.

Section 198 of Schedule 1 requires that if an organisation or branch is given a post election report under section 197 that identifies a rule that was difficult to interpret or apply, the organisation or branch must, within 30 days, give a written response to the AEC on that aspect of the report. The response must specify whether the organisation or branch intends to take any action in relation to the rule, and if so, what action it intends to take.

If the attached Report identifies a rule that was difficult to interpret or apply, you should forward your response to the AEC by email to 'industrial.elections@aec.gov.au' within thirty days of the date of the report.

Section 198 and the regulations also require an organisation to make the post election report and the organisation's response to the report (if applicable) available to members.

Further, Regulation 141(4) of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 Regulations requires an organisation or branch to publish a notice on its web site advising members that a copy of the post election report is available upon request. If a website is not available, publishing a notice in a journal or newsletter would be considered appropriate.

The ASMOF Rules [132N: Incorporates alterations of 23 January 2015 [R2014/327] (replaces 06/1/2014 version (R2013/71)) are defective in as much as it does not describe the methodology to be applied by me as electoral official conducting the election to ascertain what action to take when two or more candidates received the same number of votes for a Branch Council position.

This is a procedural defect in conducting the preferential voting system specified in Rules 64 (6) (g) and (h) that is necessary for me to remedy so that the election may be properly conducted in accordance with Rule 64.

For this purpose, I have exercised my power under subparagraph 193(1)(b)(ii) of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 to take the following action to remedy the procedural defect.

DECISION

Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009
s.189—Arrangement for conduct of an election

Australian Salaried Medical Officers Federation (E2015/55)

MR ENRIGHT

MELBOURNE, 10 FEBRUARY 2015

Arrangement for conduct of election.

[1] On 14 January 2015, the Australian Salaried Medical Officers Federation (ASMOF) lodged with the Fair Work Commission the prescribed information in relation to an election for offices within ASMOF.

[2] On 5 February 2015, ASMOF provided further prescribed information regarding the levels of membership within each branch of the organisation.

[3] In a separate piece of prescribed information lodged on 4 February 2015, the South Australia Branch of ASMOF advised that an election was required for several offices within that branch. Given that the prescribed information lodged previously on 14 January 2015 already provided that an election was required for those offices, I have determined not to issue a separate decision regarding the arrangement for the conduct of an election within the South Australia Branch of ASMOF for those offices.

[4] The prescribed information lodged on 14 January 2015 provides that an election is required for the following offices:

[5] The prescribed information was not lodged before the prescribed day in accordance with section 189(2) of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the Act). Contained within the prescribed information lodged on 14 January 2015 is a request for an extension of time for lodgement, which I allow, in accordance with section 189(2) of the Act.

[6] I am satisfied that an election for the abovenamed offices is required to be held under the rules of the organisation and, under subsection 189(3) of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009, I am making arrangements for the conduct of the election by the Australian Electoral Commission.
