Dear Mr Bielecki,

CEPU Change of Office Holders
Electrical, Energy & Services Division - Western Australia Branch

Please find attached the declaration prescribed by s.233(2) of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 detailing a change in branch office holders for the Electrical, Energy and Services Division – Western Australia Branch.

We acknowledge that we are six days late in discharging with our obligation to notify of a change in office holders.

Please note that the delay was the result of a clerical error whereby the ETU Western Australia Branch submitted the wrong report to the CEPU National Office for the December period, subsequently resulting in the change being over looked and only picked up in our January report.

Please accept our apologies for the delay.

Yours faithfully

(Electrical, Energy and Services Division)
Communications, Electrical, Electronic, Energy, Information,

by email: allen@etuaustralia.org.au
CC: M Wright, National Legal Officer

Dear Mr Hicks,

Declaration supporting notification of changes made to records of the Communications, Electrical, Electronic, Energy, Information, Postal, Plumbing and Allied Services Union of Australia (CEPU) [AR2017/58]

I refer to your correspondence dated 26 October 2017 in relation to the authority of Mr Wright to sign required declarations for the Electrical, Energy and Services Division of the CEPU during your temporary absence. In particular, I note your observation that “there is no obligation under section 233 to advise (sic) of Mr Wright’s temporary appointment as Deputy Secretary”.

As you would be aware, subsection 233(2) of the RO Act makes specific provision for declarations to be certified by ‘the Secretary or other prescribed officer of the organisation’ in relation to notifications of changes to records. As the regulator, the ROC must be satisfied that statutory requirements are complied with.

Consequently, in cases where a temporary appointment has the effect of empowering a person to certify and lodge official documents, it is appropriate and necessary for the ROC to be informed of this in order to be satisfied that the person is duly authorised to sign such declarations in accordance with the regulatory framework and the organisation’s rules.

The declaration signed by Mr Wright in support of the notification of changes lodged on 5 October 2017 did not provide any information to satisfy the ROC that Mr Wright had been duly appointed to such an office (e.g. as a Deputy Divisional Secretary) on a temporary basis. I thank you for subsequently providing further information in that regard.

Where a person other than the Secretary is fulfilling the duties of a prescribed officer for the purpose of the RO Act, for the sake of clarity their declaration must indicate the prescribed office in which capacity they make such a declaration (i.e. as ‘Deputy Divisional Secretary’ rather than ‘National Legal Officer’).

As part of the process of the ROC satisfying itself that the relevant requirements have been met, could you please provide us with a copy of the Branch Committee of Management resolution to appoint Mr Wright to temporarily fill the office of Deputy Divisional Secretary.

Yours faithfully,

Carolyn Moloney

Dear Ms Moloney,

Re: Notification of changes made to records

[AR2017/558]

I refer to the above and to your correspondence of 24 October 2017. With respect to your query to Mr Wright's capacity to make the declaration, I advise as follows:

1. the relevant change in the list of office holders occurred in the Electrical, Energy and Services Division of the CEPU ("the EESD");
2. under rule of the CEPU, the Divisional Secretary of the EESD, inter alios, is empowered to make the declarations prescribed by section 233 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009;
3. I am the Divisional Secretary for the EESD;
4. for the period 23 September 2017 to 8 October 2017, I was unable to act as Divisional Secretary;
5. in anticipation of my temporary absence, on 15 September 2017 the Divisional Council of the EESD appointed Mr Wright as Deputy Secretary of the EESD, with the term of this appointment being from 23 September 2017 to 8 October 2017.

Consequent upon the above Mr Wright was the appropriate officer under rule to make the declaration. I note in this respect that Mr Wright's appointment was a temporary one and involved no change to the list of office holders. Thus, and consistent with the previously advised approach of the CEPU in respect of temporary vacancies¹, there is no obligation under section 233 to advise of Mr Wright's temporary appointment as Deputy Secretary.

I trust this resolves the ROC's concerns.

Yours faithfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'AL AL', is written over a horizontal line.

CC: A Hicks, National Secretary

Dear Mr Wright,

Notification of changes made to records [AR2017/58]

I acknowledge receipt of a Notification of Change to the office holders of the Communications, Electrical, Electronic, Energy, Information, Postal, Plumbing and Allied Services Union of Australia (the CEPU).

This information was lodged with the Registered Organisations Commission (the ROC) under subsection 233(2) of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the RO Act) on 5 October 2017.

I note that in your declaration accompanying the notification, dated 5 October 2017, you state that you “act as a legal practitioner on behalf of the union” and that you are “authorised to make this declaration”.

Subsection 233(2) of the RO Act is a civil penalty provision and it provides that notifications of changes must be:

...certified by declaration signed by the secretary or other prescribed officer of the organisation to be a correct statement of the information contained in those records.

Regulation 150 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Regulations 2009 (the RO Regulations) provides that:

For section 233... of the Act, an officer of an organisation, other than the secretary, who is required by the organisation or by the rules of the organisation to keep the records mentioned in subsection 230(1) of the Act is a prescribed officer of the organisation.”

Section 6 of the RO Act defines ‘officer’ as follows:

Officer, in relation to an organisation, or a branch of an organisation, means a person who holds an office in the organisation or branch (including such a person when performing duties as a designated officer under Part 3 of Chapter 8).

Subsection 9(1) of the RO Act defines ‘office’ as follows:

- (1) In this Act, office, in relation to an organisation or a branch of an organisation means:
 - (a) an office of president, vice president, secretary or assistant secretary of the organisation or branch; or
 - (b) the office of a voting member of a collective body of the organisation or branch, being a collective body that has power in relation to any of the following functions:
 - (i) the management of the affairs of the organisation or branch;
 - (ii) the determination of policy for the organisation or branch;
 - (iii) the making, alteration or rescission of rules of the organisation or branch;

- (iv) the enforcement of rules of the organisation or branch, or the performance of functions in relation to the enforcement of such rules; or
- (c) an office the holder of which is, under the rules of the organisation or branch, entitled to participate directly in any of the functions referred to in subparagraphs (b)(i) and (iv), other than an office the holder of which participates only in accordance with directions given by a collective body or another person for the purpose of implementing:
 - (i) existing policy of the organisation or branch; or
 - (ii) decisions concerning the organisation or branch; or
- (d) an office the holder of which is, under the rules of the organisation or branch, entitled to participate directly in any of the functions referred to in subparagraphs (b)(ii) and (iii); or
- (e) the office of a person holding (whether as trustee or otherwise) property:
 - (i) of the organisation or branch; or
 - (ii) in which the organisation or branch has a beneficial interest.

I note that the rules of the CEPU do not appear to enable the position of National Legal Officer to satisfy this definition of 'office'. Therefore, could you confirm in writing how you are authorised to sign declarations as a prescribed officer of the CEPU. If applicable, could you also confirm the date on which you commenced an office, as defined in subsection 9(1) of the RO Act.

In the event that you are not authorised to sign declarations as a prescribed officer of the CEPU, could you arrange for an amended declaration to be signed by the Secretary or other prescribed officer of the CEPU, certifying that the notification of changes lodged on 5 October 2017 (within the prescribed timeframe) was a correct statement of the information contained in the records.

The notification has not been filed, but will be filed on receipt of a duly authorised declaration.

If you have any questions in relation to this matter, please don't hesitate to contact me on (02) 8293 4629.

Yours faithfully,

Carolyn Moloney

Dear Mr Hicks,

Notification of changes made to records [AR2017/58]

I acknowledge receipt of a Notification of Change to the office holders of the Communications, Electrical, Electronic, Energy, Information, Postal, Plumbing and Allied Services Union of Australia.

The document can be viewed on the Website through the list of Registered Organisations.

Dear Mr Bielecki,

CEPU Change of Office Holders
Electrical Division - Tasmanian Branch – Notification of Error

I refer to the above and the notification lodged by the CEPU on 12 May 2017 advising of a resignation on the Branch State Council of the Electrical Division – Tasmanian Branch.

I advise that an administrative error occurred when lodging this change, whereby the wrong name (Nathan Hancock) was accidentally inserted into the template. The correct name was Jason Dalzell.

I note, Nathan Hancock was not and has never been an office holder of the Electrical Division - Tasmanian Branch and that this was simply a copy and paste error. I further note and confirm that the position of Branch State Council Northern Section was vacated on the 5 May 2017 as we previously advised.

I now attach the declaration prescribed by s.233(2) of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 detailing the correct change in branch office holders on 5 May 2017.

Please find attached a revised declaration prescribed by s.233(2) of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 regarding a change to office holders in Electrical Division – South Australian Branch.

On 21 June 2017, I submitted a change in branch office holders for the Electrical Division – South Australian Branch. However, there was a mistake in the notice which advised that on 14 June 2017, Patrick Skeer had filled the office of Branch Executive Member as well as that of State Councillor. However, Patrick Skeer did not in fact fill the office on the Branch Executive.

Please accept my apologies for any confusion caused.

Dear Mr Hicks,

Notification of changes made to records [AR2017/58]

I acknowledge receipt of a Notification of Change to the office holders of the Communications, Electrical, Electronic, Energy, Information, Postal, Plumbing and Allied Services Union of Australia.

This information was lodged with the Registered Organisations Commission (the ROC) in accordance with s.233(2) of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the RO Act). The table below outlines the changes notified and when they were lodged. Our records have been updated accordingly.

The document can be viewed on the Website through the list of Registered Organisations.

Date of lodgement	Branch	Change
26/05/2017	Victorian (Plumbing) Divisional Branch	Branch Committee of Management Member (2)
26/05/2017	Electrical Division	National Executive Member
26/05/2017	Communications Division	National Executive Member
26/05/2017	Communications Division	Alternate National Executive Member (2)
26/05/2017	Communications Division	Alternate National Executive Member (Affirmative Action)

Section 293K of the RO Act requires each officer with financial management duties to undertake approved training that covers those duties within 6 months after the person begins to hold office. Please ensure that relevant officers undertake approved training within the required timeframe.

Please also ensure that all new holders of office are advised of their obligations to make disclosures regarding remuneration, non-cash benefits and material personal interests, the details of which are contained in the RO Act.

Thank you for the notification.

Yours sincerely,

Carolyn Moloney

Communications, Electrical, Electronic, Energy, Information,
Postal, Plumbing and Allied Services Union of Australia

By email: admin@etuaustralia.org.au

Dear Mr Hicks

Notifications of changes made to records [AR2016/148]

I refer to extensive previous correspondence between the Fair Work Commission (FWC), the Registered Organisations Commission (ROC) and the Communications, Electrical, Electronic, Energy, Information, Postal, Plumbing and Allied Services Union of Australia (CEPU) in relation to notifications required to be lodged under s 233(2) of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the RO Act).

In a range of previous correspondence, including letters from the FWC dated 11 and 16 November 2016 and 5 December 2016, I advised that I would review a range of potential contraventions of s 233(2) of the RO Act with other matters concerning the membership records of the CEPU. I am aware through correspondence dated 13 April 2017 from the CEPU's National Legal Officer, Mr Michael Wright, that a further audit of the reporting of CEPU membership numbers is being conducted. In those circumstances, I advise that the attention of the ROC, as I previously foreshadowed, has now returned to considering the potential contraventions of s 233(2) of the RO Act.

You have previously and explicitly expressed your understanding about the statutory obligation contained in s 233(2) of the RO Act and so there doesn't appear to be any requirement to set out those obligations again.

In your most recent correspondence to the ROC Commissioner, Mr Mark Bielecki, dated 16 May 2017, you lodged a notification of a change of office holders relevant to the Western Australian Branch of the CEPU Plumbing Division. Similar to many previous lodgements which I will refer to below, the lodgement of this information on 16 May 2017 appears to contravene the requirements set out in s 233(2) of the RO Act because it was lodged approximately two months later than required by that provision.

In your letter of 16 May 2017 you indicate that you have introduced a new national system of reporting which has been in place for three months and that because you were only recently notified of the change resulting in what appears to be a further contravention of s 233(2), your office will be conducting an audit of the Plumbing Division to ensure their lists of office holders are currently up to date.

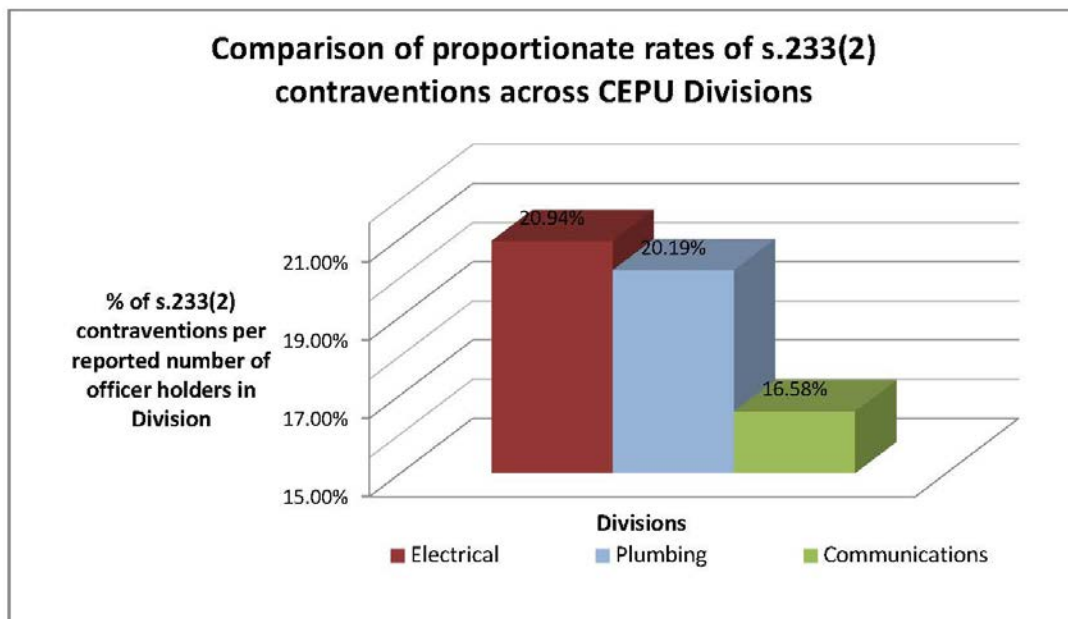

Review of potential contraventions

As I have foreshadowed in previous correspondence, a review of the CEPU's compliance with s 233(2) is being conducted by the ROC. A preliminary outcome of the review appears to reveal that between 1 July 2015 and 31 May 2017, approximately 107 potential contraventions of s 233(2) of the Act may have been identified.

I note with interest in your 16 May 2017 correspondence that you propose to audit the Plumbing Division of the CEPU for compliance with s 233(2). I provide Table 1. below for your information which refers to a percentage of potential s 233(2) contraventions per reported number of office holders in each Division. The purpose of providing this preliminary data is to assist you in determining whether the proposed limited scope of your audit is appropriate.

The number of potential contraventions which form the basis of the graph at Table 1. Is provided below in Table 2.

Table 2.

	Electrical Division	Plumbing Division	Communications Division
Number of s.233(2) contraventions	53	21	33
Number of offices in Division (as reported in AR2016/148)	253	104	199
Potential contraventions as a % of offices in Division	20.94%	20.19%	16.58%

Having regard to what appears to be a very extensive and ongoing trend of non-compliance with a statutory obligation, in the context of extensive advice provided on many occasions about the potential implications of contravening a civil penalty provision, I advise that it is anticipated that the review of CEPU compliance with s 233(2) is expected to be completed in the next few weeks and at that time, I will provide further advice concerning what, if any action, the ROC proposes to take.

I would like to make it clear that the options of commencing a formal inquiry under s 330 or a formal investigation under s 331 will be carefully considered.

For an abundance of clarity and aside from its routine statutory obligations, the CEPU is not being requested to provide any response to this letter although it is hoped the data might assist as I indicate above.

Should you have any questions in the meantime, I can be contacted on (03) 9603 0711 or via chris.enright@roc.gov.au.

Yours sincerely

Chris Enright

Dear Mr Bielecki,

CEPU Change of Office Holders
Plumbing Division - Western Australia Branch

Attached is the declaration prescribed by s.233(2) of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 detailing a change in branch office holders. The change is a result of a resignation of a member of the Branch Committee of Management of the Plumbing Division – Western Australia Branch.

Please be advised that because of previous issues with the notification of changes to office holders, I have introduced a new national system of reporting which incorporates contacting each branch every month requesting they provide a written updated spreadsheet of their list of current office holders highlighting any changes that must be notified. This system has been in place for three months. Each month I have been advised by the Plumbing Division that there were no changes to the Western Australian branch of the Plumbing Division. However, late last week, I was advised that there had in fact been a change which the branch failed to notify within the required time frame.

Consequently, I have written to the Divisional Secretary of the Plumbing Division advising that my office will be conducting an audit of office holders for each branch of the Plumbing Division to ensure their lists are currently up to date. Further, random phone checks with individual branch office holders to confirm the veracity of information received from the branches will be conducted on an ongoing basis.

Yours faithfully

Subject: Annual return of information - s233(1)(b) - declaration

Dear Annette,

Thank you for your enquiry today in relation to the question of the correctness of the information covered by a declaration certifying for the purposes of sub-section 233(1)(b).

I've discussed the matter internally as far as I've been able and offer the following comments.

There is no date specified as the date for the copy of records that is covered by a declaration - Regulation 149 only requires that the information be lodged within the period of 3 months following 1 January. We do not see any issue with a declaration specifying a date as the date in respect of which the copy of records is a correct statement of the information contained in the records. In other words, we think a declaration certifying the copy of records lodged as "a correct statement of the information contained in the records as on" e.g. 31 December of the previous year (or any other later date after 1 January) would be an acceptable declaration.

Yours faithfully

Dear Mr Hicks,

CEPU Annual Return [AR2017/58]

I refer to your correspondence dated 27 March 2017 which was lodged with the Fair Work Commission (the Commission) on 27 March 2017, seeking an extension of time to lodge the Annual Return of information for the Communications, Electrical, Electronic, Energy, Information, Postal, Plumbing and Allied Services Union of Australia (CEPU).

As you are aware, under section 233(1) of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the Act) a registered organisation has an annual obligation to lodge with the Commission a declaration and a copy of the records required to be kept under sections 230(1)(b),(c), & (d) of the Act. Regulation 149 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Regulations 2009 (the Regulations) prescribes that the requirement to lodge this annual information must be made within 3 months from 1 January, that is, by 31 March.

Unlike other sections of the Act, there is no discretion in the Act to allow for an extension of time to lodge the annual return of information, and accordingly, the annual return must be lodged with the Commission by 31 March 2017. Please note that section 233 of the Act is subject to a civil penalty provision.

If you have any questions in relation to any of the above correspondence please do not hesitate to contact me by telephone on (02) 9308 1970 or by email at david.vale@fwc.gov.au.

Yours sincerely,

David Vale

Dear Mr Enright

CEPU Annual Return as at 31 December 2016

I refer to the above and advise that the CEPU requests an extension of time of up to 30 days in which to lodge the CEPU Annual Return for the reporting period ended 31 December 2016.

The reason for this request is that the auditor for the CEPU National Council is waiting on the confirmation of audit reports on the number of members in each branch from each of the Branch auditors.

We respectfully request you consider our application for an extension of time and ask if you could please advise us before 31 March 2017 of your decision.

I apologise for this delay in lodging the Annual Return.

Yours faithfully

Dear Mr Hicks,

Communications, Electrical, Electronic, Energy, Information, Postal, Plumbing and Allied Services Union of Australia
Annual Return of Information for 2017 [AR2017/58]

I refer to our letter of January 2017 reminding you of the obligation to lodge an Annual Return of Information for 2017 by 31 March 2017. While the organisation has until the end of the month in which to lodge the information, we provide the following as a second and final reminder. Please ignore this letter if you have lodged the Annual Return in the last few days.

A signed and dated declaration certifying matters prescribed in the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the RO Act) must be lodged with the Fair Work Commission (the Commission) or the Registered Organisation Commission (the ROC) by the 31 March 2017.

It is not yet known when the ROC will be established. We strongly encourage you to lodge the Annual Return of Information with the Fair Work Commission as soon as possible to avoid any potential administrative delays which may be caused by new email and postal addresses and contact phone numbers with the newly created ROC.

Where to lodge your Annual Return of information

	Before the ROC is established	From establishment of the ROC
Where to lodge	Lodge your Annual Return of information with the Fair Work Commission	Lodge your Annual Return of information with the ROC
How to lodge	The easiest way to lodge your Annual Return of information is via email: orgs@fwc.gov.au	Lodgement methods are not yet known
Recommendation	Lodge with the Fair Work Commission as soon as possible to avoid potential delays

What must be lodged?

The matters to be included in the declaration are set out in the attached checklist.

The declaration must be signed by the Secretary, or where applicable, such other elected official who is required under the rules or by resolution of the organisation, to keep the relevant records (other prescribed officer). A declaration signed by a non-elected person does not meet this requirement. Further, you are reminded that the Secretary or other prescribed officer must also notify the Commission within 35 days of any changes to such records that may occur throughout the year.

If you require further information about an Annual Return you can refer to the 'Annual Information Requirements' page on our website and, in particular, our Webinar slides.

Once an Annual Return has been lodged, a copy will be posted on our website at List of Registered Organisations. Therefore, to protect the privacy of the relevant office holders listed in the declarations, it is recommended that officers list their official mailing address rather than personal home address.

We encourage you to lodge all returns electronically (e.g. as a pdf file) at orgs@fwc.gov.au. Please ensure that emailed documents include signatures where required.

Please note: failure to comply with these obligations is subject to a civil penalty provision (up to $54,000 for a body corporate and $10,800 for an individual per contravention), under s.305 of the RO Act. records required to be kept pursuant to section 230(1)(b)(c) and (d) of the Act. Section 230(1)(c) of the Act provides that those records include 'a list of the names, postal addresses and occupations of the persons holding office'.

If, as indicated in the correspondence from Mr Ong dated 2 February 2017, the Queensland Divisional Branch Executive passed a resolution appointing Mr Ong to the office of (Acting) Divisional Branch Secretary, effective from 1 February 2017, it would appear that Mr Ong is holding the office of 'Divisional Branch Secretary' in accordance with the Divisional rules of the CEPU. Accordingly, notification of that change to the records is required to be notified to the Commission in accordance with section 233(2) of the Act. In the present case, if you (as National Secretary) can confirm the date of effect of this change, that will suffice for notification purposes.

If you have any questions in relation to any of the above correspondence please do not hesitate to contact me by telephone on (02) 9308 1970 or by email at david.vale@fwc.gov.au.

Dear Mr Hicks,

Communications, Electrical, Electronic, Energy, Information, Postal, Plumbing and Allied Services Union of Australia
 Annual Return of Information for 2017 [AR2017/58]

This is a courtesy letter to remind you of the obligation to lodge an Annual Return of Information for 2017 in respect of the Communications, Electrical, Electronic, Energy, Information, Postal, Plumbing and Allied Services Union of Australia by 31 March 2017. However, for the reasons explained below, we strongly recommend that organisations lodge the Annual Return of information as soon as possible.

The new Registered Organisations Commission

The Registered Organisations Commission (the ROC) will be created in 2017.

Annual Returns of Information must be lodged with the Fair Work Commission until the ROC is established. Once the ROC is established, Annual Returns of information must be lodged with the ROC.

It is not yet known when the ROC will be established. We strongly encourage you to lodge the Annual Return of Information with the Fair Work Commission as soon as possible to avoid any potential administrative delays which may be caused by new email and postal addresses and contact phone numbers with the newly created ROC.

The Fair Work Commission will be providing information on the transition to the ROC through its subscription service and its website. For details about the subscription service, go to Subscriptions and subscribe to the Registered organisations information service.

Where to lodge your Annual Return of information

How to lodge	The easiest way to lodge your Annual Return of information is via email: orgs@fwc.gov.au	Lodgement methods are not yet known
Recommendation	Lodge with the Fair Work Commission as soon as possible to avoid potential delays

What must be lodged?

A signed and dated declaration certifying matters prescribed in the Fair Work (Registered

Telephone: (03) 8661 7777

Organisations) Act 2009 (the RO Act) must be lodged with the Fair Work Commission (the Commission). The matters to be included in the declaration are set out in the attached checklist.

In maintaining the register of members, your attention is drawn to the circumstances where membership ceases to exist (s.230(2)(b) and s.171A of the RO Act).

Once an Annual Return has been lodged, a copy will be posted on our website at List of Registered Organisations. Therefore, to protect the privacy of the relevant office holders listed in the declarations, it is recommended that officers list their official mailing address rather than personal home address.

Who must sign the declaration?

The declaration must be signed by the Secretary, or where applicable, such other elected official who is required under the rules or by resolution of the organisation, to keep the relevant records (other prescribed officer). A declaration signed by a non-elected person does not meet this requirement.

Who lodges the Annual Return of information?

Section 233 places the onus of lodgement on the organisation and not on each individual branch. It is therefore the national body that is obliged to collate and lodge all of the required information. Annual Return templates are available on the Commission website at Registered Organisations fact sheets, one for an organisation with branches and one for an organisation without branches.

What happens if the information changes?

The Secretary, or other prescribed officer, must notify the Fair Work Commission (or the ROC when it is established) within 35 days of any changes to such records that may occur throughout the year.

Failure to comply with these obligations is subject to a civil penalty provision (up to $54,000 for a body corporate and $10,800 for an individual per contravention), under s.305 of the RO Act.

Please do not hesitate to contact the Commission by phone on (03) 8661 7777 or by e-mail at orgs@fwc.gov.au if you wish to discuss the requirements outlined in this correspondence.

Yours sincerely,

Marianne Kay
Adviser
Regulatory Compliance Branch

A copy of each of the following records must be lodged with the Fair Work Commission (the Commission) between 1 January and 31 March each year. They must be certified by a declaration stating that it is a correct statement of the information contained in that record, signed by the Secretary or such other elected official who is required under the rules, or by resolution of the organisation, to keep the relevant records (other prescribed officer see r.150 of the RO Regulations).
