Your advanced review

Your ORP statement had an advanced review which is a comprehensive review that evaluates compliance with the requirements of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009.

Non-cash benefits for top five rankings of officers

Where the number of officers who have received relevant remuneration and/or non-cash benefits is less than five officers, a NIL statement is required.

Your ORP statement provided a NIL statement, “Only the officer listed above received relevant remuneration from the branch/organisation, relevant boards or related parties. No other officers in the branch/organisation received relevant remuneration from the branch/organisation, relevant boards or related parties”. This NIL statement did not take into account whether any other officers received non-cash benefits.

In future ORP statements, if a similar NIL statement is required please consider amending the statement to “...No other officers in the branch/organisation received relevant remuneration and/or non-cash benefits from the branch/organisation, relevant boards or related parties.”

Next year

The ROC will check for compliance with this next year.

The ROC’s risk-based approach

Over a five year period the ORP statement of every organisation and branch will be subject to at least one advanced review. An advanced review is a comprehensive review. The ROC’s advanced review checklist is published on our website.

This year your ORP statement was assessed against an advanced review.
