Your advanced review

Your ORP statement had an advanced review which is a comprehensive review that evaluates compliance with the requirements of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009.

Your ORP statement satisfied the requirements of the advanced review and has been uploaded to the ROC website.

The ROC's risk-based approach

Over a five year period the ORP statement of every organisation and branch will be subject to at least one advanced review. An advanced review is a comprehensive review. The ROC's advanced review checklist is published on our website.

This year your ORP statement was assessed against an advanced review.

Do you have questions?

Important information and education materials will be available to you in time for next year's ORP statement. We recommend you subscribe to the ROC's subscription service!

- The officers without any form of non-cash benefits identified against their name in the table above did not receive any non-cash benefits from the branch/organisation.

Relevant Remuneration:

Section 293BC defines relevant remuneration to include any remuneration paid, during the financial year, to the officer by the organisation or branch AND any remuneration disclosed by the officer to the organisation or branch. These disclosures are made under s. 293B and must include remuneration paid to the officer

- because the officer is a member of a board only because they are an officer of the organisation/branch OR they were nominated for the board by the organisation, branch or peak council, or
- by a related party of the organisation/branch in connection with the performance of the officer's duties as an officer.

Relevant non-cash benefits:

Section 293BC defines relevant non-cash benefits as any non-cash benefits provided to an officer, at any time during the financial year, in connection with the performance of the officer's duties as an officer by the organisation, branch or a related party of the organisation/branch. Non-cash benefits include property and services but not a computer, mobile phone or other electronic device used only or mainly for work purposes.

For further information on definitions and these requirements please see our Disclosure Obligations Page or our Fact Sheets page
