Dear Mr Hall

Re: s271 Certificates of Exemption - Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union, Australian Capital Territory Branch - for years ending 31 December 2008, 2009 & 2010.
(FR2008/566; FR2009/10242; FR2010/2843)

I refer to your three applications dated 27 July 2011 which were lodged with Fair Work Australia on 1 August 2011 for certificates of exemption under s271 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the Act) in respect of the Australian Capital Territory Branch of the Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union for the financial years ending 31 December 2008, 2009 and 2010 respectively.

Section 271(3) states that an application for an exemption from the requirements of Part 3 of the Act must be made within 90 days after the end of the financial year. Each of the three applications you have made for a certificate of exemption is well outside the permissible period for making such applications, particularly for the financial years ending 31 December 2008 and 2009. Under the Act the General Manager may allow a longer period for an application to be lodged but is not compelled to do so.

On this occasion I have granted the applications, however in future an application for a s271 certificate must be made within 90 days after the end of the financial year in accordance with s271(3) of the Act.

The certificates are enclosed.

Yours sincerely

Terry Nassios

Dear Mr Wason,

Re: Lodgement of Financial Statements and Accounts – Australian Capital Territory Branch, CFMEU – for years ending 31 December 2010 (FR2010/2843), 31 December 2009 (FR2009/10242), 31 December 2008 (FR2008/566)

The financial year of the Australian Capital Territory Branch established under the National Rules of the Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union ended on 31 December 2010. The prescribed period in which a return or application for exemption under s271 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 should have been lodged has now expired and there is no record of lodgment.

There is also no record of lodgement of returns or applications for exemption for the years ending 31 December 2008 and 31 December 2009.

If the returns or applications for exemption are ready to be lodged, please do so without further delay, or advise if there are circumstances preventing lodgment at this time.

Yours sincerely,

Re: Financial Reporting – Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union, Tasmania Branch
- for years ending 31 December 2008 (FR2008/566), 31 December 2009 (FR2009/10242)

You may have received, or will shortly receive, a letter reminding you about the need to comply with the financial reporting requirements of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 in respect of the year just ended, 31 December 2010. I am writing however to remind you about the two previous years.

There is no record of any lodgement by the above Branch of any application under s271 for an exemption on the basis of no financial affairs, as has been the practice in past years, for either of the above two financial years.

While ever an exemption from reporting financially has not been applied for and granted, the obligation to lodge a financial return remains.

If you intend to lodge s271 applications, two separate applications should be lodged, one for each year. If there are circumstances preventing lodging such applications at present, I would appreciate your advice.

Yours respectfully,

Stephen Kellett

Dear Ms Schoonwater

Financial Reporting – Australian Capital Territory Branch – for year ended 31 December 2009 (FR2009/10242)

This is a letter to remind you of the financial reporting obligations under the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 ('the RO Act') in respect of the Australian Capital Territory Branch of the federally registered Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union (i.e. not the Divisional Branch).

In past years (with the exception of the year ending 31 December 2008 about which I am writing separately to you) an application under s271 of the Act - for an exemption on the basis of no financial affairs - has been made.

Applications under s271 may be lodged electronically at riasydney@fwa.gov.au, or alternatively, by facsimile at (02) 9380 6990.

Unless an application under s271 is made and granted, the obligation to lodge a financial return in accordance with the Act in respect of this Branch remains.
