replaces rulebook dated 20/07/2006

Rules difficult to apply/interpret:

Rule 3.11.b. regarding the counting of votes for single office elections appears to be silent on how to treat a ballot paper where there are more than three candidates. It refers only to the distribution of 2nd preferences but gives no instruction regarding 3rd or 4th etc preferences. It is recommended that the rule be amended to also provide instruction where a ballot paper includes a 2nd preference to a previously excluded candidate.

Dear Mr Lee,

Re: Amendment to application to conduct an election for office and positions other than office

The CPSU wishes to advise Fair Work Australia (FWA) of an amendment to the CPSU's election request made to FWA on 6 July 2011.

That amendment is to Schedule D of the election request and changes the number of Section Council positions for Section number 17. Families, Housing, Community Services & Indigenous Affairs Section Council. This amendment stems from a recent change to this Section Council structure.

Please find attached a statement from Nadine Flood, CPSU National Secretary regarding the amendment to the election request and enclosing those amendments.

Dear Mr Lee,

Re: Amendment to application to conduct an election for office and positions other than office

The CPSU wishes to advise Fair Work Australia (FWA) of an amendment to the CPSU's election request made to FWA on 6 July 2011.

That amendment is to Schedule D of the election request and changes the number of Section Council positions for Section number 17. Families, Housing, Community Services & Indigenous Affairs Section Council. This amendment stems from a recent change to this Section Council structure.

Please find attached a statement from Nadine Flood, CPSU National Secretary regarding the amendment to the election request and enclosing those amendments.
