Dear Mr Brown

Health Services Union Queensland Branch: non-lodgement of financial reports for years ending 30 June 2000 to 30 June 2010

I refer to previous correspondence and discussion with you regarding outstanding financial reports for the Queensland Branch of the Health Service Union (HSU) for the financial years ending 30 June 2000 to 2010.

As you are aware, the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (RO Act) requires the Queensland Branch of the HSU to lodge audited financial reports with the Fair Work Commission (the Commission) within six months and 14 days of the end of its financial year (that is, no later than 15 January). It is a requirement of the RO Act that:

- a General Purpose Financial Report (GPFR) and an operating report be prepared as soon as practicable after the end of the financial year (ss.253, 254);
- that the full report (consisting of the GPFR, operating report and auditor's report) be presented to a general meeting of members, or to a meeting of the branch Committee of Management, within six months after the end of the financial year (s.266); and
- a copy of the full report must be provided to members at least 21 days before the general meeting or if presented to a branch Committee of Management meeting within five months after the end of the financial year (s.265(5)).

You have advised that, due to the failure by the then Queensland Branch Committee of Management to keep proper or adequate financial records, financial reports for the years ending 30 June 2000 to 30 June 2010 are not able to be prepared, in breach of the above requirements of the RO Act.

It also appears that the Health Services Union failed to lodge the required information for the Queensland Branch in the annual returns for the years 2006 to 2013 as required by s.233.

I consider the prolonged non-compliance by the Queensland Branch to be a serious matter. The standards set out in the RO Act are directed to ensuring that registered organisations are: accountable to their members; efficiently managed and operate effectively; and enable participation by members in the affairs of the organisation. The consequence of the contraventions is that the Branch has not been accountable to its members and members have been deprived of the opportunity to be informed of the financial position of the Branch and to otherwise participate in the affairs of the organisation, contrary to the objects of the RO Act.

Officers of an organisation are also held to high standards and must comply with the general duties in relation to the financial management of the organisation. The failure by the then Branch Secretary to comply with these requirements and the lack of oversight by then National Executive, may also amount to a breaches of the general duties of officers as set out in Part 2 of Chapter 9 of the RO Act.

However, I also acknowledge the extensive and voluntary action taken by the current National Executive and new Branch Committee of Management to rectify these matters. In particular, that the National Executive has taken steps to reconstitute the Branch and has put in place internal governance mechanisms to ensure proper oversight of the Queensland Branch. As a result, the Branch now has a new Committee of Management, and has lodged the outstanding financial reports for the financial years ending 30 June 2011 to 30 June 2013 and complied with its reporting requirements for the financial year ending 30 June 2014 and 30 June 2015.

It is also a relevant consideration that: both the former Queensland Branch office holders and National Secretaries are no longer officers of the union; that the number of members of the Branch is small; and the current National Executive has been fully cooperative.

Having regard to these matters, it is not considered it would be in the public interest to commence a formal investigation into these matters and I advise that the Commission will close off the financial reports for the Queensland Branch of the HSU for the years 30 June 2000 to 30 June 2010 and annual returns for the years 2006 to 2013.

However, the Commission will continue to closely monitor the Queensland Branch and will take prompt action in response to any further contraventions. You are on notice that any future non-compliance by the Queensland Branch will be treated very seriously, with the earlier non-compliance taken into account in deciding what action to take.

I also note that in a meeting on 16 September 2015, you raised the possibility of an amendment to the HSU Rules to abolish the Queensland Branch and have the Tasmanian Branch look after the interests of members in Queensland. Please note that until such change to the HSU Rules is approved, the Queensland Branch must adhere to all requirements under Part 3 of Chapter 8 of the RO Act. I would request that you continue to keep the Commission updated regarding the status of the Queensland Branch.

If you would like to discuss any aspect of the above, please contact me on 8656 4680 or Joanne Fenwick, Financial Reporting Specialist on 8656 4681.

Please acknowledge your receipt of this correspondence by Friday 19 February 2016.

Yours sincerely
