Dear Ms Howe

Re: Annual Return of information contained in records kept by organisation
(AR 2005/136)

I have received your letter dated 31 January 2005 together with attachments providing some information in accordance with subsection 233(1) of Schedule 1B of the Workplace Relations Act 1996. The documents were lodged in the Industrial Registry on 3 February 2005.

The declaration of results which you have forwarded, presumably as a list of offices and office holders, is not correct if Ms Short has resigned, and is out of date. We require a list of offices and office holders (together with their addresses) as at 1 January of each year.

I draw your attention to the requirement to provide information in relation to each election that must be held during each year commencing 1 January [subregulation 147(e)].

I look forward to receiving the following information at your earliest convenience:

- a list of offices of the branch
- a list of office holders of the branch together with their addresses
- information about any anticipated elections for the calendar year 2005.

Yours sincerely

Dear Ms Williams,

Re: Annual Return of information contained in records kept by organisation
(AR 2005/136)

Further to your letter AR2005/136, I again enclose the list of offices and office holders as of 1 January, 2005.

Further, as the union is required to advise of changes of office holders, I hereby advise you that on 20 January, 2005, Ms Short resigned from the Executive.

There is no requirement to hold an election of officer bearers in 2005, although it is anticipated that there will be an election to fill the position created by the resignation of Ms Short. However, I would point out that the union is not required to fill that position.

Yours sincerely

- a list of the names, postal addresses and occupations of the persons holding the offices and s.233(1) requires the organisation to lodge it in the Industrial Registry.

Please refer to the Branch’s 2004 annual return lodged in the Registry under s.233(1) of Schedule 1B of the Act for assistance with the format and content of the annual return for 2005.

I look forward to receiving the information requested.
