

Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009

Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Regulations 2009

Declaration on behalf of the National Tertiary Education Industry Union under Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act Section 198 (6)

I Grahame McCulloch, General Secretary of the National Tertiary Education Industry Union (“NTEU”), of 120 Clarendon St South Melbourne, Victoria, am authorised under the Rules of the NTEU to make this declaration.

Whereas the Australian Electoral Commission has made and provided to the NTEU a Post-Election Report following the conduct of Election E2017/63 (“the Report”), and that Report has identified rules of the NTEU which it considers were difficult to interpret or apply (Reg. 141 (1) (b)), and whereas the NTEU has provided to the Australian Electoral Commission and the Registered Organisations Commissioner a written response to that the Report; I declare that the NTEU, as prescribed by Section 198 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act, will provide a copy of the relevant extract (as defined in Section 198) and the organisation's written response to any member who so requests.

4 October 2017

Relevant Extract (as defined in Section 198 of the Fair Work Registered Organisations Act 2009) of the Post-Election Report of the Australian Electoral Commission following the conduct of Election 2017/63 for the National Tertiary Education Industry Union.

Rules

Rules used for the election: [283V: Incorporates alternations of 2/12/2015 in matter R2015/237]

Rules difficult to apply/interpret:

Rule 72.15(b) requires extension of the closing date for nominations until noon on the 17th day after the date initially fixed as the date for the close of nominations for unfilled offices.

This rule does not allow time to check the eligibility of candidates or to allow time for a defect period which usually occurs in these elections. The unfilled offices cannot be confirmed until the declaration has been issued for the initial call of nominations. The declaration can take up to 10 to 14 days leaving a 3 day nomination period for the calling of nominations for the unfilled positions.

This rule should read as follows:

Rule 72.15(b) requires the Returning Officer to recall nominations for unfilled offices. The recall of nominations should close 14 days after the date of declaration which confirms the number of unfilled offices to be recalled. This action provides for a 14 day nomination period which reflects the minimum period for the calling of nominations.

Written Response by the NTEU to the AEC Post-Election Report for Election 2017/63

The matters raised by the Returning Officer from the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) have been considered by the National Tertiary Education Industry Union (NTEU). They are in substance the same concerns as those included in the Post-Election Report for Election 2016/100 provided to the NTEU in January 2017.

NTEU does not accept that the existing rule is difficult to interpret or apply, for the reasons set out in the NTEU's written response to that earlier Report, part of which is reproduced here:

Under the NTEU rules, as they are actually applied, every member individually receives a nomination form and notice that she/he can nominate, before the ordinary closing of nominations. Each member has every opportunity to nominate for any position for which they are eligible.

. . . the primary purpose of the extension [of nominations after the closing date where no-one has nominated] is so that the officers and committee members and intended candidates can attend to the following problems: (1) The original nomination being invalid or late or where an intending candidate forgot to lodge their nomination on time; and (2) It was expected that a person was going to nominate or renominate for a position, but in the end they did not, leaving an unexpected vacancy.

Nevertheless, NTEU proposes to suggest a rule change to its 2017 National Council to change "seventeenth day" to "nineteenth day" in Rule 72.15.

I can confirm that at its meeting this week, the Union's supreme decision-making body, the National Council will be considering the following motion to amend the Union's Rules to extend the period of extension of nominations from 17 days to 19 days.

This written response is made pursuant to Sections 197 and 198 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 and Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Regulation 141. I have been authorised by the General Secretary of the NTEU to provide this written response.

Dear Mr McCulloch

Organisation must respond to the post-election report of the Australian Electoral Commission: E2017/63

On 6/09/2017 the Registered Organisations Commission (the ROC) received a post election report from the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) for election E2017/63 dated 6/09/2017. The AEC will have also provided the report to the organisation under section 197 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the RO Act).

The report identifies rules that were difficult to interpret or apply, in particular rule 72.15(B). This letter serves as a reminder of the obligations imposed on the organisation or branch as a consequence of the AEC's report. If a response has already been sent to the AEC and made available to all members please disregard this letter.

A notice must be published on the organisation's website

The organisation or branch must publish on its website a notice that a copy of the report is available from the organisation, branch or the AEC on request. The notice must be kept on the website for a period of at least 3 months (see regs 141(4) and (5)).

A written response must be provided to the AEC

A written response must be provided to the AEC within 30 days of receipt of the report. The organisation's response must include whether the organisation or branch intends to take action and if so what action the organisation or branch intends to take (s198(2)).

Extract of report must be made available to members

The organisation or branch must make the section of the report relating to the difficult rules available to its members (s198(3)). This extract from the report must be made available to the members before or at the same time as the organisation's response is made available to members.

Written response must be made available to members

A copy of the organisation's response to the AEC must be made available to members either:

- within 30 days after the response is given to the AEC, or
- published in the next edition of the organisation or branch journal (s198(5))

Subsection 198(6) and regulation 142 prescribe ways in which the relevant extract and the copy of the response can be made available to members. These do not limit the ways in which they can be made available to members. The organisation will comply if it does all of the following:-

- publish the report extract and the copy of the response in the next edition of the organisation or branch's journal; and
- within 30 days of giving the response to the AEC:
 - lodges with the ROC a copy of the relevant extract and response, together with a declaration that a copy will be provided to any member who so requests; and
 - give notice in the next edition of the organisation or branch's journal, or an appropriate newspaper, that a copy of the relevant extract and response are available on request to each member free of charge; and
- publish the relevant extract on the website within 14 days after receiving the report, and publish the response on the website within 14 days of giving the response to the AEC (reg 142(2)).

Penalties may apply

If the organisation or branch does not:

- respond to the AEC within 30 days,
- make the extract of the report relating to the rules available to members no later than the organisation's response is made available to members, or
- make the organisation's response available to members within 30 days or in the next edition of the journal, the organisation may face penalties under the RO Act. Each requirement listed above is a civil penalty provision that may result in fines for the organisation

As noted above, if the response and report have already been made available to members and the AEC, please disregard this letter. If you have any questions in relation to these obligations please contact the ROC for assistance by email to regorgs@roc.gov.au.

If the organisation or branch decides to alter its rules in response to the AEC's report

If the organisation or branch decides to alter its rules in response to the AEC's report, the ROC is NOT able to provide advice and assistance regarding draft alterations or the processes required to make the alterations. Rule alterations remain a function of the Fair Work Commission.

Yours faithfully

Christine Hibberd

Mr Grahame McCulloch
General Secretary
National Tertiary Education Industry Union
rveal@nteu.org.au

Dear Mr McCulloch,

cc: Mr Colin Long, Divisional Secretary, National Tertiary Education Industry Union-Victorian Division; Division Secretary, National Tertiary Education Industry Union-Western Australian Division

Reminder of actions required when persons elected to office

The Australian Electoral Commission has provided the Registered Organisations Commission (the ROC) a declaration of results for the election of uncontested offices for Victorian and West Australian Branches [E2017/63]. This letter is a reminder of certain obligations imposed on organisations and on persons elected to office.

A notice must be published on the organisation's website

The organisation or branch must publish on its website a notice that a copy of the report is available from the organisation, branch or the AEC on request. The notice must be kept on the website for a period of at least 3 months (see regulation 141 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Regulations 2009).

Holders of office required to undertake approved training

Section 293K of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the RO Act) requires each officer with financial management duties to undertake approved training that covers those duties within 6 months after the person begins to hold office. Please ensure that relevant officers undertake approved training within the required timeframe. Please also ensure that all new holders of office are advised of their obligations to make disclosures regarding remuneration, non-cash benefits and material personal interests, the details of which are provided for in the RO Act.

Organisation must notify the Commission of changes

Also, section 233(2) of the RO Act requires that an organisation must notify the Commission within 35 days of any changes to the holders of office in the organisation. If there are no changes a notification is not required. If the election has resulted in any changes to the holders of office, the National Tertiary Education Industry Union must notify the Commission of these changes. In particular, please advise:

1. Person(s) who have ceased to hold office:
 - the name of the office vacated;
 - the date of the change of office holder; and
 - the name of the person vacating the office.

2. Person(s) who have commenced to hold office:

- the name of the office now held;
- the date of the change of office holder;
- the name of the person now holding the office;
- the postal address of the person (generally the postal address of the organisation); and

- the occupation of the person now holding the office.

The notification must include a declaration by the Secretary (or other prescribed officer) that the information is a correct statement of the changes made. A template notification of changes, which may assist you, is attached. If any change does not apply until a date in the future, you do not need to notify until then (e.g. AGM, 1 January, 2nd Monday in March). If you have already lodged this information, please disregard this reminder.

Regards

Christine Hibberd
