Returning Officer
Australian Electoral Commission

Dear Ms. Nguyen

Police Federation of Australia NSW Police Branch Elections

I refer to your Post Election Reports for the elections E2019/236 and 2021/66 for the position of Branch Delegate to Federal Council.

Having considered the report including rules that were difficult to apply/interpret I can confirm that, at the June meeting of the Branch Executive I will propose Branch Rule changes to;

- Insert a defect period in compliance with s143(1)(c) of the Fair Work (RO) Act
- Mirror model rule 14.1.4 regarding drawing of lots.

I will cause your reports and this reply to be published on our website.

Yours faithfully

Pat Gooley
Branch Administrator

Election(s) Covered in this Report

Organisation: PFA - New South Wales Police Branch
Election: Casual Vacancy
Election Decision No/s: E2019/236

Rules

Rules used for the election: 200V: Incorporates alterations of 13 July 2021 [R2021/31]
(replaces rulebook dated 21 June 2021 [R2021/35])

Rules difficult to apply: Yes

52EG.e.xi.b The full names of candidates, for election for an office shall appear on the ballot paper for that election, shall have been drawn by ballot, at the close of the nominations or, in relation to candidates whose family names are identical, in the alphabetical order of their first or given names.

The rule was difficult to apply at close of nominations since the rules does not account for a defect period. Section 143(1) (c) of the Fair Work (RO) Act 2009 mandates that there must be at least a 7 day period to remedy any defects. The order of candidate names can only be drawn after close of nominations and any defect period that may be in effect.

Model Rule reference (if any):

14.1.4 The order of names in each ballot on the ballot paper shall be determined by lot drawn by the returning officer.

For more details see the Model Rules on the AEC website: www.aec.gov.au/ieb/

Other Matters

Returning Officer actions required (Section 193): Yes

Details:

- Rules specifying the method of lodgement of nominations and candidate statements are set aside as the AEC held concerns that the coronavirus pandemic would impact on the ability for potential candidates to nominate. Instead, nominations will be received electronically, via email/the AEC's portal.
- Rules regarding the timetable of the election were set aside as the AEC held concerns that the coronavirus pandemic may impact on the ability for stakeholders to fully participate in the election. A timetable for the conduct of the ballot which varied from the rules was set when the AEC was satisfied that stakeholders would be able to fully participate.
- Ballot draw was not conducted at close of nomination as per Rule 52EG.e.xi.b. Ballot draw was conducted after close of nomination.

Other Matters

Returning Officer actions required (Section 193):

Details: Section 52 EG (xi)(b) of the branch rules specifies that candidates are to provide their full names on the ballot paper. The organisation may wish to alter the rules to allow for candidates to provide a preferred name on the ballot paper. This would allow candidates to be represented on the ballot paper by the name they are known by other members.

Returning Officer actions required (Section 193):

- COVID Impact
 - Any elections where the AEC was unable to follow the timetable due to COVID19 restrictions
Rules regarding the timetable of the election were set aside as the AEC held concerns that the coronavirus pandemic may impact on the ability for stakeholders to fully participate in the election. A timetable for the conduct of the ballot which varied from the rules was set when the AEC was satisfied that stakeholders would be able to fully participate.
 - Nominations received via portal rather than what is stated in the organisation's rules.
Rules specifying the method of lodgement of nominations were set aside as the AEC held concerns that the coronavirus pandemic would impact on the ability for potential candidates to nominate. Instead nominations were received electronically, via email/the AEC's portal.
