Dear Mr Davis

Showmen's Guild of Australasia
2009 Guild Election
E2009/E288

The ballot for the election of Twenty (20) Committee Members in your Organisation closed at 9 am on Wednesday, 25 March 2009.

My declaration of the contested offices is attached.

Please note that this information must remain confidential until the results are announced at the Annual General Meeting.

The election is now complete for the positions listed in my declaration.

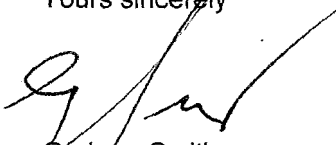

However, please be aware that I have not declared a Candidate as being successfully elected to the final Committee Member position because during the counting of votes three (3) Candidates each received exactly the same number of votes in relation to the filling of the "final" Committee Member position.

The "final" Committee Member position should now be "decided by drawing of lots at the Annual General Meeting" of The Showmen's Guild of Australasia in accordance with Rule 13 (f) which states as follows :

SGA Rule 13 (f) :

"The candidates for the respective offices who shall receive the greatest number of votes shall be, and be deemed to be, elected to the offices for which they were candidates. If at any ballot the number of votes cast for two or more candidates is equal then the ballot shall be decided by drawing of lots at the Annual General Meeting."

Yours sincerely
