Executive Officer
TFGA Industrial Association
primaryemployers@bigpond.com

Dear Executive Officer,

Notification of changes made to records [AR2017/18]

I acknowledge receipt of a Notification of Change to the office holders of the TFGA Industrial Association.

This information was lodged with the Registered Organisations Commission (the ROC) pursuant to the notification requirements in section 233(2) of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the RO Act).

The table below outlines the changes notified and when they were lodged. Our records have been updated accordingly. The document can be viewed on the Website through the list of Registered Organisations.

Date of lodgement	Branch	Change	Within prescribed period (Yes/No). If No, how many days late
4/12/2017	N/A	President and Treasurer are ineligible – offices now vacant	Yes

Late notifications

Please note that Regulation 151 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Regulations 2009 prescribes that a notification of change pursuant to section 233(2) of the RO Act must be lodged within 35 days of the change occurring. I note that this is a civil penalty provision and non-compliance may leave your organisation open to Federal Court proceedings.

Mandatory disclosures

Please ensure that all new holders of office are advised of their obligations to make disclosures regarding remuneration, non-cash benefits and material personal interests, the details of which are contained in the RO Act and are summarised in the ROC's Disclosures Fact Sheet.

Mandatory training

Please also note that Section 293K of the RO Act requires each officer with duties that relate to the financial management must undertake approved training that covers the duties within 6 months after the person begins to hold office. Please ensure that relevant officers are advised of the requirement to undertake approved training. Please also ensure that they undertake the training within the required timeframe.

Thank you for your correspondence.

Yours faithfully,

Christine Hibberd

Dear Secretary (or prescribed office holder),

Education and advice campaign - the obligation to notify the ROC of changes to records within the prescribed statutory time frame

I write on behalf of the Registered Organisations Commissioner to advise you about an education and advice campaign being conducted by the Registered Organisations Commission (ROC) which is designed to encourage all registered organisations and their office holders to comply with the statutory obligation to lodge timely notifications of changes to records, contained in section 233(2) of the Fair work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the RO Act).

The ROC has become increasingly concerned about systemic contraventions of s.233(2) in which the lodgement of notifications are repeatedly weeks, months or even years late, or have not been lodged at all. Contraventions of this provision can give rise to risks for registered organisations and their members as a result of reduced transparency and accountability, and can expose the organisation to potential civil penalty proceedings.

As an independent regulator, the ROC's approach seeks to be fair, proportionate, objective and evidence-based. The ROC considers that compliance with statutory obligations is essential to ensure that registered organisations function efficiently, effectively and transparently.

The importance of timely notifications

The statutory obligation on registered organisations to notify the ROC of particular changes to records under s.233(2) of the RO Act has been part of the regulatory scheme in various forms for over 100 years and is currently a civil penalty provision, which means that registered organisations or their prescribed office holders may be potentially liable for any breaches.

The obligation is essential for a number of reasons including that:

- It assists members to participate in the democratic functioning and control of their organisations;
- Enables the regulator to publish information about who current office holders are; and
- It promotes accountability of office holders who are managing the funds and assets of registered organisations.

Registered organisations represent the interests of approximately 2 million members nationally. It is essential that timely information about the identity of relevant office holders is lodged in compliance with the RO Act so that the regulator and each organisation's members can be aware of which office holders are exercising management and financial responsibilities in their organisations.

The ROC and its predecessors have published the lists of office holders of registered organisations on the relevant agency's public website since at least 2003. The ROC also publishes all notifications about changes to the branches, office addresses and office holders of registered organisations lodged under s.233(2) of the RO Act. The publication of this information provides transparency to members and the general public and facilitates accountability.

Educational reference documents

The ROC is committed to providing education, assistance and advice to registered organisations as part of the functions set out in s.329AB of the RO Act. Our primary educational goal is to maximise voluntary compliance with statutory obligations under the RO Act, to promote the effective governance, accountability and transparency of registered organisations and to thereby reduce the need for enforcement action.

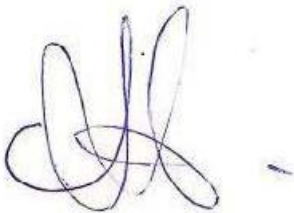

As one part of a strategy to assist organisations to increase voluntary compliance with the s.233(2) obligation, the ROC has recently produced some new educational guides which are enclosed:

- Guidance Note – a quick reference guide in the form of a table, using scenarios where organisation staff and office holders may be unsure if they are obliged to notify changes. The table contains references to all relevant legislative provisions;
- Fact Sheet – a separate fact sheet outlining the types of changes that need to be notified and what needs to be included with the notification;
- Legislative Summary – a brief summary of the history of the legislative provision to notify changes, included for the purpose of understanding the historical context of the obligation.

In addition, the ROC will continue its ongoing practice of providing courtesy reminder correspondence about the requirement to notify changes to office holders, whenever we are provided with election results from the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC). Further, the ROC proposes to audit and continue to review compliance with this important statutory obligation.

Should you have any questions or feedback in relation to this correspondence, I can be contacted on 1300 341 665 or via regorgs@roc.gov.au.

Yours faithfully,

Chris Enright

Notification of changes

The Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 requires organisations of employers and employees to annually lodge certain information to the Registered Organisations Commission (the ROC). In addition, whenever any changes occur in relation to certain records, registered organisations are required to lodge a notification of change to the ROC. The change must be lodged within 35 days after the change occurs.

Records requiring notifications of any changes

If any of the following records change, the organisation must notify the ROC of the change within 35 days after the change occurs:

- the list of offices in the organisation or in a branch of the organisation
- the name, postal address or occupation of a person holding office
- the name of a branch of the organisation
- the commencement or cessation of a branch of the organisation
- the address of the office of the organisation, or the address of the office of a branch of the organisation

What does the ROC do with the information?

Records including the above information are required to be lodged by each organisation by 31 March in each year in the Annual Return of Information. Annual Returns are published under the corresponding organisation on the ROC website. This information can be found by clicking on the 'Find a Registered Organisation' tab. Notifications of changes are published in descending date order within the corresponding year's annual return document. This enables members to view the changes with reference to the complete list of office holders.

When changes must be notified

Details of any changes must be notified within 35 days after the change occurs, as prescribed by regulation 151 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Regulations 2009.

What needs to be included?

NOTE: The ROC recommends use of the sample Notification of Changes template, as provided below, to help ensure that all of the required details are included in a notification of change

- The notification must be lodged with a declaration signed by the Secretary or another office holder whose duties under the rules of the organisation or branch include lodging required information to the statutory body. The declaration must contain a statement that the information lodged is a correct statement of the changes made.

- The notification must include details of each relevant office/office holder/branch to which the changes have occurred.
- The notification must include the date the change occurred and clearly specify what the change was.
- The notification must indicate the date on which the changes occurred, as this pertains to the obligation to lodge the notification within 35 days of the change.
- For changes to office holders the following details are also required:
  - The title of the relevant office
  - The name of each new or former office holder
  - the postal address of each new office holder. For privacy reasons, the ROC recommends using the postal address of the relevant organisation/branch, rather than the residential address of the person.
  - The occupation of each new office holder
- For new branches the street address (not just a postal address) must be included.

Who can sign the declaration?

The declaration must be signed by the Secretary or another office holder whose duties under the rules of the organisation or branch include lodging required information to the statutory body. A sample declaration template is provided below under 'sample notification of change template'.

If an organisation is divided into branches or divisions, the notification of change may be made by a national office holder or the relevant branch or division office holder, depending on who has authority under the rules of the organisation to do so.

Sample Notification of Changes Template

The sample notification of change template provided below includes a sample declaration template and a sample notification table. The ROC recommends use of these documents to help ensure that all of the required information is provided.

3. Elections and Notifications of change
a) If an officer resigns do organisations need to lodge the Prescribed Information for a casual vacancy election separately to the notification of changes?	YES – the notification process is completely separate to the election process. Notification of a vacant office does not cause an election process to automatically start. For information about lodging Prescribed Information for elections, see the Elections page of the ROC website.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Section 233(2) of the RO Act;</li> </ul>
b) Do organisations need to advise the ROC about changes even when the ROC has been provided with the declaration of results for an election by the AEC?	YES – it is one of the statutory obligations of organisations to notify the ROC, in writing, of any changes to the records the organisation has lodged. The AEC declaration of results provides the names of office holders elected, but does not indicate whether this constitutes a change to the list of office holders that the organisation lodged with the annual return.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Section 233(2) of the RO Act;</li> <li>• Section 230(1)(c) of the RO Act</li> </ul>
c) If evidence of a vacancy has already been provided to the organisation for an election matter, is it still necessary to lodge a notification of the change?	YES – the notification of changes process and requirements are completely separate to those of the election process.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Section 233(2) of the RO Act;</li> </ul>

Summary and Historical Context of the Legislative Provisions

A brief explanation of the historical context surrounding the reporting obligation to notify changes is provided below. This information is intended to promote a better understanding of the reporting obligation, as well as an understanding of some of the purposes of the obligation.

As an overview, the statutory requirement for federally registered organisations to notify the relevant regulator of changes to records:

- appears to have been part of the relevant legislative scheme for over a century,
- has varied in terms of the time periods allowed for the changes to be notified to the relevant regulator,
- is an essential, fundamental and appropriate statutory obligation which provides transparency to members and the regulator.

Summary of the current provisions relevant to notifications of changes

'RO Act' means Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009.

'RO Regs' means Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Regulations 2009.

Subsection 233(2) of the RO Act provides that:

An organisation must, within the prescribed period, lodge with the Commissioner notification of any change made to the records required to be kept under paragraphs 230(1)(b), (c) and (d), certified by declaration signed by the secretary or other prescribed officer of the organisation to be a correct statement of the changes made.

Civil penalty: 60 penalty units.

Subsections 230(1)(b), (c) and (d) of the RO Act provide that:

- (1) An organisation must keep the following records:
  - (a) a list of the offices in the organisation and each branch of the organisation;
  - (c) a list of the names, postal addresses and occupations of the persons holding the offices;
  - (d) such other records as are prescribed.

Regulation 147 of the RO Regs provides that:

For paragraph 230(1)(d) of the Act, the following records are prescribed in relation to an organisation:

- (a) a record of the name of each branch of the organisation;
- (b) a record of the name of each branch that commenced operation in the previous 12 months;
- (c) a record of the name of each branch that ceased operation in the previous 12 months;

- (d) a record of the address of:
  - (i) the office of the organisation; and
  - (ii) the office of each branch of the organisation;
- (e) a record of each election that must, under the rules of the organisation, be held during each year commencing 1 January:
  - (i) for an office in the organisation; and
  - (ii) for an office in a branch of the organisation;
- (f) a record of the number of members on 31 December in the previous year;
- (g) if the organisation has entered into an agreement mentioned in subsection 151(1) of the Act – a record of the number of members of the organisation who were, on 31 December in the previous year, ineligible State members, in relation to the organisation, within the meaning of section 150 of the Act.

Regulation 151 of the RO Regs provides that:

For subsection 233(2) of the Act, for the lodgment of notification of any change to the records, the period of 35 days, beginning on the day after the day when the change is made, is prescribed.

Section 5 of the RO Act provides that:

The standards set out in this Act:

- (a) ensure that employer and employee organisations registered under this Act are representative of and accountable to their members, and are able to operate effectively; and
- (b) encourage members to participate in the affairs of the organisations to which they belong; and
- (c) encourage the efficient management of organisations and high standards of accountability of organisations to their members; and
- (d) provide for the democratic functioning and control of organisations; and
- (e) facilitate the registration of a diverse range of employer and employee organisations.

Brief chronological history of the legislative provision

1913 - The history of the provision for registered organisations to notify changes to relevant statutory body can be traced back to 1913. The Conciliation and Arbitration Regulations 1913, contained the 'Returns of Officers' provision at regulation 19, which required updates of lists of office holders to be provided within 14 days of any change.

1928 - The Conciliation and Arbitration Regulations 1928 contained requirements relating to records at regulation 20 and this requirement bears similarity to the obligation set out in s 233(2) of the current RO Act. From 1928, the statutory requirement in accordance with regulation 23 was that changes to the records of registered organisations were to be filed with the relevant regulator within 14 days.

1989 - In 1989, the obligation on a registered organisation to notify the relevant regulator of changes to office holders was found in regulation 131, and notifications of changes were required to be lodged within 35 days. The requirement transitioned into the Industrial Relations Act 1988 by virtue of section 268(4) taking effect in March 1989.

1988 - The Industrial Relations Act 1988 was replaced by the Workplace Relations Act 1996.

2002 - The Workplace Relations Amendment (Registration and Accountability of Organisations) Act 2002 placed the reporting obligations of registered organisations into a separate schedule. This amendment introduced Schedule 1B to the Workplace Relations Act 1996, which was the original RAO (Registration and Accountability of Organisations) Schedule. The RAO schedule included section 233 which is very similar to the provision in s.233(2) of the current RO Act.

2009 - The RAO schedule later became the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009.

AR2017/18

Attention: Margaret Williams

We refer to your letter dated 17 March, 2017. We apologise for the delay in responding but the writer has been away.

We note that the Executive Officer is an elected member and has authority to execute returns and documents on the Association's behalf (Section 29.4(e)). Further, the Executive Officer has been delegated this responsibility pursuant to a written contract.

However, to avoid any issue we attach the Declaration duly executed by the President, Mr Glynn Williams, to avoid any doubt.

Please let the writer know if you have any queries.

Kind regards,

Andrew Cameron | Workplace Relations Director | TFGA Industrial Association

Dear Mr Cameron,

Annual Return of Information for 2017 [AR2017/18]

I acknowledge receipt on 2 March 2017 of your Declaration providing information in accordance with subsection 233(1) of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the RO Act).

The documents lodged cover the required information for the 2017 Annual Return of Information of TFGA Industrial Association.

The documents have been filed and can be viewed on the Fair Work Commission website through the List of Registered Organisations - <http://www.fwc.gov.au/registered-organisations/find-registered-organisations>.

When regard is had under the Rules of the organisation as to Powers and Duties of the Executive Officer, as defined under the Act. it is not clear whether you hold an office.

I also note that under the Rules, the execution of documents is done following authorisation by the Executive Committee. Annual Return documents are customarily executed by the Secretary or other prescribed officer, eg Mr Glen Archer, Vice President.

Notifications of Change

Any changes to these records must be notified to the Commission within 35 days of the change. A template Notification of Change Declaration is available on the fact-sheets page of our website. TFGA Industrial Association is encouraged to use this template when changes occur, as required by s.233 (2) of the RO Act.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

Margaret Williams
