Dear Mr Ophel,

I refer to correspondence received by this office from the Australian Electoral Commission on the 11th December, 2002 regarding the declaration of result for the Quadrennial Elections of the Transport Worker's Union of Australia, NSW Branch (attached for your information).

In accordance with the rule of this organisation, I request that you take the necessary steps to ensure the returning officer conduct an election for the positions of one Branch President, one Branch Vice President, one Branch Assistant Secretary and three Branch Trustees.

In accordance with the part 11 of Annexure F, Special Rule – New South Wales Branch of the rules of this organisation a meeting of the Branch Committee of Management is to be arranged within 28 days of the declaration of the poll for the Branch Committee of Management to elect these officers by and from the Branch Committee of Management.

Nominations for these positions are to be called for at the first session of this meeting.

The required date for this meeting is Monday the 6th of January 2003. Tentative arrangements to hold the meeting on this date have already commenced.

Could you kindly to the necessary steps to arrange the Branch Returning Officer for the conduct of this election.

If you have any questions, or wish to discuss any of the above, please do not hesitate to contact me on (02) 9912 0719 or Scott Connolly of my office on (02) 9912 0718 or 0418 445 329.

Yours sincerely,

TONY SHELDON
