Dear Sir/Madam

Re: Statutory Returns

In accordance with the provisions of the Workplace Relations Act 1996 please find enclosed the following Statutory Declarations:

1. A statutory declaration that certifies that the register of members has, during the immediately preceding calendar year, been kept and maintained as required by the Act.
2. A statutory declaration of the list of the Offices in the Organisation and each Branch of the Organisation, together with a list of the names, postal addresses and occupations of those persons holding the Offices.
3. A statutory declaration detailing the name of each Branch of the Organisation.
4. A statutory declaration that details a copy of the address of the office of the Organisation and each of its Branches.

With respect to Regulation 102(c) of the above-mentioned Act, as elections are not due to be held this year, no further information has been provided.

I trust the enclosed information meets our obligations under the Act and Regulations. If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours faithfully

Dear Mr Marshall,

I refer to the memorandum of Mr P. Caica dated 28 February 2002, providing notification of the following changes:-

- list of office holders in the organisation in particular to the holder of the office of National Secretary;
- change of address and
- change of telephone number.

The information supplied does not fully comply with the requirements of sub-section 268(4) of the Workplace Relations Act 1996 as notification of any changes made to organisation records must be certified by statutory declaration.

Accordingly, the information needs to be lodged under a statutory declaration (copy attached).

If you have any other queries please ring me on (03) 8661 7988.
