Dear Mr Marshall

Re: United Firefighters' Union of Australia
Annual Return of Information for Year 2004

This is a courtesy letter to remind you of the obligation to lodge an Annual Return of Information for the year 2004 in respect of the body specified above.

In accordance with subsection 233(1) of the Registration and Accountability of Organisations Schedule (Schedule 1B to the Workplace Relations Act 1996), each organisation is required to lodge in the Industrial Registry certain information relating to records required to be kept and maintained by the organisation under section 230 and regulation 147 of the Workplace Relations (Registration and Accountability of Organisations) Regulations. Such information must, in respect of the year 2004 be lodged before 31 March 2004.

Please note that as a result of changes made to the Act on 12 May 2003, an organisation must also keep and lodge:

- ◆ a record of the name of each branch that commenced operation in the previous 12 months;
- ◆ a record of the name of each branch that ceased operation in the previous 12 months;
- ◆ a record of each election that must, under the rules of the organisation, be held during each year commencing 1 January for an office in the organisation and for an office in a branch of the organisation; and
- ◆ a record of the number of members on 31 December in the previous year;

Note: ► Previously, the requirement to lodge a record of each election that must be held applied to each year commencing 1 April.

Note: ► Previously, the requirement to lodge the number of members only applied to an organisation of employees and was related to the number of persons who were, on 1 January, both members and employees or independent contractors. The new requirement will apply to an organisation of employers as well as an organisation of employees.

The obligation to lodge a “statutory declaration” signed by the secretary or other prescribed officer to accompany documents required to be lodged annually has been replaced with an obligation to lodge a “declaration” [s233(1)].

A summary of the information required to be lodged annually is set out in the accompanying document. Notifications of changes to the annual information required to be lodged under subsection 233(2) and regulation 151 are also summarised in the accompanying document.

When lodging in the Registry the annual return or any subsequent notification of a change to records please quote: AR2004/295.

Please do not hesitate to contact me on (03) 8661 7988 if you wish to discuss the requirements for the Annual Return of Information or notifications of changes to such information.

Yours sincerely

Dear Mr Marshall

Re: United Firefighters' Union of Australia
Outstanding Annual Return of Information for Year 2004

From the records held in the Industrial Registry it would seem that the Annual Return of Information for Year 2004 is outstanding in respect of the body specified above.

In accordance with subsection 233(1) of the Registration and Accountability of Organisations Schedule (Schedule 1B to the Workplace Relations Act 1996), each organisation is required to lodge in the Industrial Registry certain information relating to records required to be kept and maintained by the organisation under section 230 and regulation 147 of the Workplace Relations (Registration and Accountability of Organisations) Regulations. Such information must be lodged once in each year at any time during the period of three months commencing 1 January.

As there is a mandatory obligation on organisations to supply this information, you are requested to lodge the outstanding information under cover of a statutory declaration by 26 May, 2004.

A summary of the information required to be lodged annually is set out in the accompanying document. Notifications of changes to the annual information required to be lodged under subsection 233(2) and regulation 151 are also summarised in the accompanying document.

Should you wish to discuss this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me on (03) 8661 7988.

When lodging in the Registry the annual return or any subsequent notification of a change to records please quote: AR2004/295.

Dear Sir/Madam,

Re: Statutory Returns

In accordance with the provisions of the Workplace Relations Act 1996 please find enclosed the following Statutory Declarations:

1. A statutory declaration that certifies that the register of members has, during the immediately preceding calendar year and up to the current date, has been kept and maintained as required by the Act.
2. A statutory declaration of the list of the Offices in the Organisation and each Branch of the Organisation, together with a list of names, postal addresses and occupations of those persons holding the Offices as at the current time.
3. A statutory declaration detailing the name of each Branch of the Organisation.
4. A statutory declaration that details a copy of the address of the office of the Organisation and each of its Branches.

I trust that the information meets our obligations under the Act and Regulations. If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact me on 0419 127 004.

Yours faithfully,

Peter J Marshall

Dear Mr Marshall,

Re: United Firefighters' Union of Australia
Annual Return of information contained in records kept by organisation
(AR 2004/295)

I have received the 2004 annual return of information. The documents were lodged in the Industrial Registry on 26 May 2004. I note that the documents refer to subsections 268(1) and (2) of the Workplace Relations Act 1996 (the Act). That section has been repealed.

As a result of changes made to the Act on 12 May 2003 you are required to lodge annual return information in accordance with subsection 233(1) of the Registration and Accountability of Organisations Schedule (Schedule 1B to the Act). You are required to lodge in the Industrial Registry certain information relating to records required to be kept and maintained by the organisation under section 230 and regulation 147 of the Workplace Relations (Registration and Accountability of Organisations) Regulations.

The obligation to lodge a "statutory declaration" signed by the secretary or other prescribed officer to accompany documents required to be lodged annually has been replaced with an obligation to lodge a "declaration" [s233(1)].

You have omitted to include in the statutory declaration information in relation to any election that may be held during the year.

You must keep and lodge a record of each election that must, under the rules of the organisation, be held during each year commencing 1 January for an office in the organisation. Previously, the requirement to lodge a record of each election that must be held applied to each year commencing 1 April. Should there be no election scheduled for the ensuing year, then the words 'no election' would be appreciated on the declaration. Please refer to s230(1)(d) and reg 147(e).

Could you please lodge annual return of information, including election information, in accordance with the new requirements of Schedule 1B to the Act.

I have enclosed an attachment that lists recurring obligations to keep and lodge information under Schedule 1B to the Act.

Please do not hesitate to contact me on (03) 8661 7988 if you wish to discuss the requirements for the Annual Return of Information.

Yours sincerely
