Your advanced review

Your ORP statement had an advanced review which is a comprehensive review that evaluates compliance with the requirements of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009.

Your ORP statement did not satisfy the requirements of the advanced review. It has been filed and you don't need to do anything further this year. But the issues identified below must be correct in next year's ORP statement. Your ORP statement has been uploaded to the ROC website.

Honarium payments to officers

The issue identified in the advanced review of your ORP statement related to the disclosure of honorarium payments. Honorarium payments to officers form part of the officer's relevant remuneration, and should therefore be disclosed within the first table in the template ORP statement (the top five ranking of officers by relevant remuneration during the financial year). Honorarium payments to officers (for example, to acknowledge attendance to a meeting) are unlikely to be related party payments.

The ROC's risk-based approach

Over a five year period the ORP statement of every organisation and branch will be subject to at least one advanced review. An advanced review is a comprehensive review. The ROC's advanced review checklist is published on our website.

This year your ORP statement was assessed against an advanced review. However it is not possible for the ROC to check the accuracy of all the information in the statement.

You can be penalised for any non-compliance (whether checked in this advanced review or not).

Do you have questions?

Important information and education materials will be available to you in time for next year's ORP statement. We recommend you subscribe to the ROC's subscription service!

If you have any queries we can be contacted on 1300 341 665 or by email at regorgs@roc.gov.au.

Yours sincerely
