Your advanced review

Your ORP statement had an advanced review which is a comprehensive review that evaluates compliance with the requirements of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009.

Your ORP statement satisfied the requirements of the advanced review and has been uploaded to the ROC website.

The ROC's risk-based approach

Over a five year period the ORP statement of every organisation and branch will be subject to at least one advanced review. An advanced review is a comprehensive review. The ROC's advanced review checklist is published on our website.

This year your ORP statement was assessed against an advanced review. However it is not possible for the ROC to check the accuracy of all the information in the statement.

You can be penalised for any non-compliance (whether checked in this advanced review or not).

Do you have questions?

Important information and education materials will be available to you in time for next year's ORP statement. We recommend you subscribe to the ROC's subscription service!

If you have any queries we can be contacted on 1300 341 665 or by email at regorgs@roc.gov.au.

Yours sincerely

- No officers in the branch received relevant remuneration from the branch/organisation, any relevant boards or related parties. The officers of the organisation are joint officers of the State Registered Union, The United Professional Firefighters Union of Western Australia, and hold the parallel office in each organisation. All officers are remunerated by the State Registered Union. The five top ranking officers by relevant remuneration by the State Registered Union for the period 1 January to 30 June 2019 are: 1. Kevin Jolly, President ($76,169), 2. Lea Anderson, Secretary ($76,132), 3. Lou Parker, Assistant Secretary, ($14,043), 4. Cian Evans, Firefighter Ordinary Committee Member ($12,736), 5. Scott Gamble, Vice President ($1,500).

Relevant Remuneration:

Section 293BC defines relevant remuneration to include any remuneration paid, during the financial year, to the officer by the organisation or branch AND any remuneration disclosed by the officer to the organisation or branch. These disclosures are made under s. 293B and must include remuneration paid to the officer

- because the officer is a member of a board only because they are an officer of the organisation/branch OR they were nominated for the board by the organisation, branch or peak council, or
- by a related party of the organisation/branch in connection with the performance of the officer's duties as an officer.

Relevant non-cash benefits:

Section 293BC defines relevant non-cash benefits as any non-cash benefits provided to an officer, at any time during the financial year, in connection with the performance of the officer's duties as an officer by the organisation, branch or a related party of the organisation/branch. Non-cash benefits include property and services but not a computer, mobile phone or other electronic device used only or mainly for work purposes.
